Record Vote Forcast for Election Day

Next Tuesday is Election Day.

In addition to voting for President and Vice-President of the United States, voters of this area will elect a United States Congressman, a State Assemblyman and a U. S. Senator, and will decide on 24 state propositions and one county proposition.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Throughout Contra Costa County, 158,790 voters are registered — 95,822 Democratic, 57,931 Republicans, 286 Independent Progressive, 16 Prohibition, 4680 declined to state, 55 miscellaneous. A record turnout of voters is anticipated .

OPPOSING EACH other for the office of Congressman from the new 6th Congressional District are Democrat Robert L. Condon, present assemblyman, and Republican John F. Baldwin Jr.

Contenders for the office of State Assemblyman from the 10th Assembly District are Republican Donald D. Doyle and Democrat Harold E. Mutnick.

Although U.S. Senator William F. Knowland captured both the Republican and Democratic nominations for U.S. Senator in the June Primary, he is opposed on the ballot by Reuben W. Borough, Independent Progresive.

Unopposed on the ballot are George Miller Jr., incumbent, for State Senator from the 17th Senatorial District, John T. Nourse for presiding justice, District Court of Appeal, First Appellate District, Division 2, and incumbents W. D. McNevin, G. Howard Robinson and A. C. Carrington for directors of the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

OF THE STATE propositions, greatest interest has been aroused in Nos. 2 and 24, for increased state aid to public schools; No. 3, for tax exemption for non-profit private schools, and Nos. 10 and 11, the McLain measures to prohibit appropriation of public funds to private organizations and to place the old age security program under state administration.

County Proposition A is for a $1,350,000 bond issue for construction o fa county office building in Richmond. A two-thirds vote is required.

It's Hallowe'en — Masks, Pumpkins Order of the Day

It's time to hollow a pumpkin, put on a mask and find a suitable costume . . . today is Halloween.

Costume parades at Glorietta and Orinda Schools will start the celebration, Two parades at each school will be held for youngster on double session.

After the parades, parties have been planned in all classrooms, with room mothers helping teachers.

ORINDA LIONS will sponsor their annual party at the Orinda Theater with a full length movie starting at 6:45 p. m.

Costume judging, a special surprise for all children, refreshments and games will highlight the evening.

Ben Randall, theater manager, has planned pie eating and balloon blowing contests.

Wednesday youngster from each school painted store windows in the Village and at the Crossroads. Judges are Mrs. Zoe Woolsey, Walter Friberg and Hugh Phair.

WINNING WINDOW painters will be announced tonight and the Lions will award a $25 cash prize which will be divided evenly among the winning classrooms.

Jim Hendrickson is head of the Lions Hallowe'en committee, and helping him are Stewart Wade, Jack Cooper and Rudy Rasmussen.

Need for Civil Defense Workers Told Directors

A graphic need for civil defense volunteers was revealed to the directors of the Orinda Association when they made a tour of the Region 3 Control Center in the Berkeley Hills Monday night.

Harry H. Stoops, regional coordinator conducted the tour and informed the directors that there is an urgent need for some 84 volunteer workers.

THE DIRECTORS were asked to help in getting volunteers. They agreed to work with the civil defense and said they would help find a "key" man in the Orinda area who would secure volunteers. This matter will be reported to the civil affairs committee.

Stoops called the Sun later and suggested that until a "key" figure is selected persons wishing to volunteer contact President Stanley Allen of the Association at Orinda 8984.

"There is a need for 18 typists, 15 clerks 9 dispatchers, 3 incident board workers and 39 telephone operators," Stoops said.

These persons will work on four-hour shifts and no training is needed. The next civil defense drill has been set for November 23 and will last from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

The Orinda Association board members were shown the chart and control rooms where the "bell and light" alert system has recently been installed. Because of this warning system, an enemy plane as far away as Alaska can be reported here in a matter of seconds.

Also shown to the directors were the offices of the fire, police, evacuation and welfare, transportation, communications, first aid, medical supply, engineering, utilities and traffic control heads. They were told just what the duties of each group would be in case of an emergency.

There are 10 civil defense regional control centers in California with the chief three being located in San Diego, Los Angeles and the Berkeley Hills.

The tour ended with a brief question and answer period.

Final Plans Set For Election Day

Mrs. H. C. Gathings of Camino Don Miguel was hostess to all of the precinct captains and co-ordinators of the Orinda Republican Women's Club Monday.

The group discussed election day plans and Mrs. Gathings said they will do precinct work and will provide transportation to the polls. They will also do baby sitting work.

Mrs. Gathings is precinct chairman for the group and working with her are the Mesdames Thomas Barrows, Robert Harrison, Donald Krotz, J. Aubrey Sweet, Thomas Bacon, and Kendric Morrish.

Students Invited to Open House Tonight

An open house for high school students will be held in the Hacienda, the room beneath the chapel in the Community Church, tonight from 9:30 p. m. to midnight.

Games will be played and refreshments served under the sponsorship of the Pilgrim Fellowship group.

Last Friday, 200 young folks came to an open house following the Acalanes football game.

Orinda Men Are Busy in Annual Blind Fund Drive

Orinda Lion's Club members who are active in the Committee for the Blind are mailing "Be Thankful You Can See" seals this week, marking the annual drive of the East Bay Center for the blind.

The committee, composed of members of more than 35 Lions Clubs of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties built the modern Center in Oakland in 1950, and this and future Seals sales will pay for furnishings and maintenance, according to Orinda Lions President, Walter Friberg.

Active with the president in this work are Dr. Lloyd Farrar, committee chairman; Stewart Wade, director on the Board; Joe Navone, Al Eberline, Carl Miller, Paul Vashell and G. A. Baslaugh.

EBMUD Sells Land In Wildcat Canyon

Conclusion of the sale of nearly 2500 acres of land in the Wildcat Canyon area by the East Bay Municipal Utility District was announced recently by Louis J. Breuner president of the EBMUD Board of Directors.

A syndicate represented by Phillip Ross of Hillsborough purchased the land for $575.000.

It is understood that the sydicate purchasing the property intends to develop much of it for residential building, Breuner said.

"The sale of the property is consistent with the district's continued policy of returning public lands to tax rolls or to other public bodies for use in the best interest of the citizens of the East Bay, when the property is no longer needed by the district in the operation of the local public water supply system," he said.

The property is between the cities of El Cerrito and Richmond and the San Pablo Dam Road.

Who'll Win? Politicus Hazards Some Guesses — with Plenty of Ifs and Buts

By POLITICUS

Well, who's ahead? Rather, who'll win in next Tuesday's election? Politicus isn't referring to the Ike vs. Adlai campaign, but to the contests here — Assembly candidates Donald Doyle and Harold Mutnick, and Congressional candidates John F. Baldwin Jr. and Robert Condon. Without any pretension at crystal-gazing, it looks like a tossup in the Congressional race. Republican Baldwin, it's true, piled up a majority of popular votes in the June Primary, including over 18,000 Democratic votes — but since then the Democratic registration has been sharply increased, with the result Contra Costa has 95,822 registered Democrats as against 57,931 Republicans.

That, of course, is no assurance of anything. There's no telling how many Democrats will vote for Baldwin — or how many Republicans will vote for Condon. This is one contest on which Politicus wouldn't bet a used campaign button!

IN THE ASSEMBLY RACE, it looks as if Republican Doyle has an edge over Democrat Mutnick — but here, too, it's difficult to gauge the sentiment of the voters.

ONE THING that makes it difficult is that, although the county is strongly Democratic, the Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda area is the county's Republican stronghold. So maybe we "can't see the forest because of the trees."

What about those industrial areas like Pittsburg, Port Chicago, Antioch? Frankly, we don't know.

Another factor to consider is that the Democratic strength of this county may be such that even a swing to the G. O. P. nationally may not considerably affect the voting trend here. (Notice we said "may" and "may not" — you won't catch Politicus out on a limb!"

ONE THING'S CERTAIN—there's intense interest in this election, nationally and area-wide. A record turnout of voters is anticipated. Not only that, but there's probably more money being spent in the Congressional race than ever before in such a campaign here.

In the Assembly race, Doyle's campaign is reported to be costing a tidy sum. Mutnick's campaign finances are extremely modest.

Everybody really means business — including the all-impostant John Q. Public. What'll the answer be? We'll all know come next Wednesday!

Election Nears — Cigarette Poll Picks Ike, 3 1/3 - 1

According to cigarette smokers, Ike leads Adlai 3⅓ to 1 in popularity in this area.

This startling figure has been compiled from invoice checks on Ike and Stevenson cigarettes which have been on sale in Wright's Village Pharmacy at 79 Orinda Highway.

As of last week, three Adlai packs had been sold as compared to 10 for Eisenhower.

No matter the outcome of the election, all smokers are expected to return to their favorite brands Wednesday morning.

School Trustees Meeting Monday

A meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Orinda Union School District has been set for Monday in the Orinda School at 8 p.m.

The board will review plans for Moraga del Rey School and a letter of approval of the school's preliminary drawing from the State Department of Education will be read.

Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff will report on the 1457 enrollment in the district. This figure includes 621 students at Glorietta School and 836 youngsters at Orinda School.

The trustees will receive a report on the progress of Sleepy Hollow School and will consider the status of school bus transportation at the present time.

Bill Malott Resigns From Sewer Board

Donn Sigerson Named Planning Committee Head

Donn Sigerson was named chairman of the Planning Committee of the Orinda Association by the Board of Directors during a brief business meeting held in the Civil Defense Control Center Building in the Berkeley Hills Monday night.

Sigerson was appointed following the resignation of Joseph Creighton.

In a letter to Stanley Allen, president of the directors, Creighton said, "I have been quite active in politics in recent weeks and for that reason have not been able to give proper attention to the functions of the Planning Committee of The Orinda Association.

"Inasmuch as I will be occupied with other matters at least until after Christmas, I believe it wise for me to tender my resignation at this time."

Creighton added, "During the several months that I have served as chairman of this committee, I have reached the conclusion that no satisfactory solution to Orinda's planning problems can be assured as long as the decisions are made in Martinez.

"There is a great deal of undeveloped property in Orinda and there are several groups which are willing to sacrifice the interests of the residents of Orinda in order to increase the profits which they expect to derive from the development of property.

"I conclude, therefore, that the problem of planning is one of many reasons which justifies serious consideration of incorporation."

Because President Allen was not at that meeting, the letter was not read to the directors. However, all present knew of Creighton's resignation.

Sigerson reported to the directors on the lot size hearing dispute and told of recent civic meetings he has attended in this area.

GEORGE KLEMENT resigned from the Board of Directors because of "business matters." Because there is one more meeting before new directors will be named no one was appointd to take his place.

Briefly discussed was the idea of a general membership meeting for sometime in the near future.

Kirk Miles suggested a letter of thanks be sent to the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation for outstanding work.

Present were secretary Charles Blue, Jack Cooper, Peter Vietch, Everett Howe, Jack Buchter, Harry Lacey, Andy Blalock and Miles.

Bradley Hunts For Deer—Lands Bear

Sharp shooter Don Bradley of 32 Bonita Court, Walnut Creek and Bradley's Market in Orinda, downed a bear with one shot from his rifle during a recent deer hunting trip near Eagle Creek.

Bradley was hunting when he suddenly found himself in the middle of six bears. He quickly aimed his rifle, shot one animal right between the eyes, and watched as all the rest scattered in various directions.

"The animal wasn't too big and only had its summer hide," Bradley explains.

The bear, the first Bradley ever shot, can now be located at his ranch in Eagle Creek .

'Hats Off' to Fighters for Highway Funds

Everybody in this area felt pretty good last week when the news was received that the State Highway Commission had allocated budget funds for construction of the Orinda Overpass next year and had decided that a substantial sum will be used to buy right-of-way for the Walnut Creek By-Pass.

But also, practically everybody knew that these developments hadn't happened overnight. In large part they were the result of the organized citizenry of this area making the needs of the area known to the state authorities.

Even on the day of the commission meeting where the fund allocations were announced, representative groups were right there, in the Sacramento meeting-room, "making their pitch."

So The SUN says "Hats Off" to the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation; its chairman, Elliott J. Hartman; Ed Rowland, a federation director; the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce; John Nejedly, city attorney of Walnut Creek, and Vance Perry, secretary-manager of the Walnut Creek Chamber, for going to Sacramento last week, and to them and the many others who over long months pressed the good fight for sorely-needed highway improvements.

Fire Board Told Responsibility To Reinstate GIs

The Orinda Fire District has the legal responsibility to reinstate employees returning from the armed services, if those employees wish to be reinstated and make application within a specified time after military discharge.

This was reported by Secretary Zach Montgomery at the October 23 Orinda Fire Board meeting at Orinda Fire House No. 1 in the Village. In a response to a board query, the county district attorney's office had written the commissioners about this matter.

THE FIRE BOARD request had been prompted by the fact that a couple of firemen have recently been called into the armed service. Most recent is Bill Koch Jr., son of the Orinda Fire Department's Inspector, who leaves early in November. Koch Jr. and Fireman Roy F. Brooks, who recently entered the service, have asked the fire board for military leave.

Other business at the meeting included:

1. — Report by Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt that the carport at Fire Station No. 2 has been completed.

2. — DECISION TO TRY to get an opinion from County Clerk W. A. Paasch as to whether the district must appropriate money for fire trails. The commissioners felt that Orinda does not come under such a setup.

3. — Report by Wyatt that remodeling and moving of the furnace in fire station 1 has been completed.

4. — Decision that Clarence Betz, accountant for the district, inquire further as to whether the district should get a lower compensation insurance rate from the State Industrial Acicdent Commission, to cover injuries to firemen hurt on duty.

Next regular meeting of the fire board will be held Friday, November 28, 8 p. m., at fire station 1. Reason for the date is that the fourth Thursday of November is Thanksgiving Day.

Montgomery said a special meeting may be held next month to discuss revision of the by-laws.

Directors Told of Decision; Clune Is Recommended

By POLITICUS

Director William Malott of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District has told other board members that he is resigning from the board. He wants his resignation to take effect as soon as convenient for the board.

Malott, an engineer for a firm doing work for the Atomic Energy Commission, gives lack of time as his basic reason for wanting to resign.

While it is true that being a Sanitary District director is time-consuming, aggravating, often thankless job, some observers close to the scene believe that Malott hasn't been entirely happy with recent actions of the board and the board's approach to some problems.

Malott, who hasn't been at recent Sanitary District meetings, admits he doesn't have "the taste for the work."

"The board is in good hands; what I wanted to see done was done," he said, referring to the controversial garbage franchise ordinance which was a key issue in the recent district election and which was finally rescinded by the new board.

IN INFORMAL talks with board members he was assisting, Malott expressed hope Col. Franck J. Clune would be considered to succeed him.

Clune, who ran fifth among nine candidates for three posts, is a retired Army medical officer with considerable sanitation engineering experience, and during the campaign stated he would be able to devote full time to Sanitary District business.

CLUNE APPARENTLY is being considered for the job but Politicus learns that some board members and a great many people in the district believe the board needs a successful business man on it. At present the board consists of three attorneys — Chairman Elliott Johnson, Ernest Spiegl and Irving Boemer — and two engineers — Frank Salfingere and Malott.

Don't be surprised if there'll be more Sanitary District fireworks — not concerning the board itself, but concerning possible future revelations and actions.

Highway Crash Near Crossroads

A two-car rear-end crash on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near the Orinda Crossroads Friday at 12:20 p. m. was reported by the California Highway Patrol.

Involved in the accident were Joseph Erken, 21, of Berkeley, and William Bort Jr. 18 of Oakland.

No injuries were reported the highway patrol said.

'Trick 'n Treat' — Even Weatherman Likes Hallowe'en

Thanks to Hallowe'en, Old Man Weather enjoyed some "trick 'n treat" doings with Orindans during the week from October 23 through Wednesday.

Biggest "treat" of the week came Tuesday, when a hot of 82 degrees was reported.

Mr. Weatherman's "trick" came Monday and Tuesday nights when a chill of 38 degrees was noticed in the area.

A year ago at this time, the hottest day was 75 degrees and the coldest, 35 degrees.

Some fog but no rain was reported.

1,000 Hear Candidates Debate Issues

Nearly 1000 persons jammed Acalanes High School auditorium Tuesday night to hear debates between Congressional candidates Robert L. Condon and John F. Baldwin Jr. and between Assembly candidates Donald D. Doyle and Harold E. Mutnick.

While the two debates were the major attractions at the big political rally sponsored by The SUN, the crowd also came to laugh at the opening one-act skit, "Sweet Land of Liberty," which poked fun at Republicans and Democrats alike.

DESPITE the warning by Moderator Ernest Spiegl that anyone without a sense of humor had better leave unitl the debating started, everyone stayed for the skit — and judging from the laughter of the audience, the skins of Republicans and Democrats present weren't too thin.

Following the skit and a brief talk by Herman Silverman, SUN publisher, the verbal battle got under way. Mrs. Bess Whitcomb, public speaking teacher at Contra Costa Junior College, acted as timekeeper.

THE ASSEMBLY candidates "went on" first. Republican Doyle, opening, criticized Mutnick for talking about national issues in his campaigning. "Neither my opponent nor I can do anything about national issues," he declared.

Doyle praised Governor Warren's 10-year administration in California, and denied the charge by Mutnick that he was a lobbyist for the insurance interests.

"My opponent has never had any business experience of any kind in the State of California," he said.

Democrat Mutnick argued that national issues are a measuring-stick whereby two "unknowns," like himself and Doyle, could be sized up as to their views.

"I can't promise you any cure-alls," he said. "All I can promise you is an honest approach to governmental problems."

IN THE CONGRESSIONAL candidates' debate, Democrat Condon, leading off, cited his record as state assemblyman for the past four years.

"My record as a legislator is known," he said. "I did not anticipate a campaign of libels or near-libels," he added, holding up a paper in which he said "a veterans' group" gave eight reasons "why Condon was a treasonable character."

"I have never once attacked my opponent's character or his love of his country," Condon stated. "And I'm going to continue my campaign on that basis. I'm conducting my campaign on the issues."

REPUBLICAN BALDWIN emphasized the importance of foreign problems. "We could work out our domestic problems and continue as a nation," he said, "but how our foreign problems are solved in the next four years will determine the whole future course and fate of our country."

Baldwin criticized the State Department for pulling U. S. troops out of Korea prior to the invasion of South Korea. "If Korea was essential to our defense in 1950, why wasn't it in 1949?" he asked.

"There have been other inconsistencies in foreign policy," he continued. "America is at the crossroads."

In his rebuttal, Condon stated that the withdrawal of U. S. troops from Korea was based on recommendations by General Douglas MacArthur.

MOST OF THE audience stayed on for a half-hour question and answer period. Questions from the floor were directed at specific candidates, and the opposing candidate was also given the opportunity to comment.

Questions covered a wide range, including:

To Baldwin — "What do you think the Republican Party can do to bring about a swift conclusion of the Korean war?"

To Doyle — "Do you think a person born outside of Contra Costa County should represent Contra Costa County in the State Legislature?"

To Baldwin — "Do you intend to answer the letter you received last week?"

To Condon — "What is your position on the Tidelands?"

To Baldwin — "Do you endorse the views of Gardiner Johnson expressed recently at a meeting at Acalanes?"

BALDWIN STATED he did not think any party could bring about quick ending of the Korean war; that he eventually answers all letters but is "swamped" now; that he had never met Gardiner Johnson prior to the meeting at which Johnson spoke — "if his statements were true, I see no reason why the public shouldn't know about them; if false, that's another matter."

Condon said he was for federal control of the Tidelands, since oil is "the basic sinew of war." He called Johnson's attack on him false.

Doyle said that, certainly, a person born outside of this county had the right to represent the county. "I was born outside of Contra Costa County," he added.

THE DRAMATIC SKIT was written by Joe Connor, and was produced and directed by Wilma Connor. Actors were Ralph Johanson, Ike; Roy Elke, Adlai; Leroy Sowers, Nixon; Beverly Miles, Truman; Adrienne Sowers, Margaret Truman John McLean, Taft; Erwin Mattson, McCarthy; Ernest Dix, Alger Hiss; Keith Lynn, Keystone cop; Dan Welte, master of ceremonies.

Electricians for the gathering were two Acalanes students, Jack Lloyd and Bob Wall.

'No Comment' on Speech by Long

Sheriff James N. Long talked on 'Law Enforcement in Contra Costa County" Tuesday at the luncheon meeting of the Commonwealth Club of California at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

In the light of recent revelations by W. M. Pechart and Dave Kessel, admitting erstwhile big-time gambling operations in Contra Costa, and of Bones" Remmer's recent income tax indictment, The Sun merely says:

"We have no comment."

Is New School in A Fire District?

Action on proposed annexation of the new Sleepy Hollow School area to the Orinda Fire District has been put over by the County Boundary Commission until next Wednesday.

Reason for the postponement last Tuesday was that County Assessor Justin Randall thought the new school area already was in a fire district, but he wasn't sure; he thought the land might be within the juridiction of the Eastern Contra Costa County Fire District.

The continuation was voted to give Randall a chance to check the records in the matter.

Auto Dealers, Realtors Offer Rides to Polls

Throughout this area, as throughout the nation, auto dealers are offering transportation to the polls on Election Day, next Tuesday.

In this non-partisan service to the voters of the county, the members of the Contra Costa County Motor Car Dealers Association are joined by the Contra Costa Real Estate Board. Both groups are offering free rides to the polls.

A telephone call to any member of either organization is all thats necessary. No excuse for not voting!

Dr. E. Stevenson Talks to Rotary

Dr. E. A. Stevenson., head of the California School for the Deaf, spoke to members of the Orinda Rotary Club Wednesday at the Willows.

He talked on the "highlights and problems in the education of the Deaf." Of all handicaps, deafness is the most difficult to deal with when teaching yougsters, Dr. Stevenson said.

Clarence Betz was program chairman.

Jon Tibbetts, 13-year-old Eagle Scout of Troop 200, was a guest.

Next week, Mrs. E. S. Carlson, director of International House at the University of California campus, will be guest speaker. This meeting has been set as "Ladies' Day".

Bill McGuire, Ike --They're Pen Pals

Bill McGuire, son of Kay McGuire of 23 Valley Drive, got the biggest thrill of his entire 10 years Friday when he received a personal letter from the Republican presidential candidate, General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Bill, who attends Glorietta School saw "Ike" during his recent whistle stop appearance in Martinez and wrote the general saying he liked him and hoped he'd win the election.

Eisenhower answered: "Thank you for your fine note. It was very kind of you to think of me. My staff and I deeply desire that our efforts will make the world a better place for our young people."

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

NEW WOMAN IN TOWN — young, alluring, the petite type, flower petal skin, softly curving cheeks dainty little hands and an appetite that goes on all through the night. Young men beware, because she insists that the car she rides around in must be pink and blue. A little later she might be interested in convertibles but at the moment she only travels in conveyances of the bassinette type. Her name Elizabeth, sister of Vickie, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Ronald Schacht. She hasn't been around for long — couple of weeks, maybe — but she has already captivated a considerable audience at the Crossroads, and heaven help us in about 17 years. Welcome to Orinda — new baby Schacht.

Another woman back in town after a vacation trip east. Mrs. Melvin Jacobus, obviously "just donatin' her time," took on the Middle West single-handedly in the Republican cause and even went so far as to convert several New York cab drivers.

We know darned well where Mrs. Jacobus gets her convincing manner and persuasive ways — it is because of her leadership of the Orinda Republican Women during the past year. After all, a New York cab driver is no match for a woman who can lead the lady Republicans in singing the Star Spangled Banner and Battle Hymn of the Republic while feeling like the spirit of '76, sounding like the spirit of the concert hall and looking like the spirit of Vogue's idea of what the smart woman should wear while conducting a suburban meeting.

One other Republican fashion note — "I Like Ike" earrings on Mrs. Perc Brown. (We hope Mrs. Brown will forgive our mentioning something else — rather personal — but certainly something she is doing that we all should be proud of — something which should make people who neglect to vote realize that they are robbing themselves of their most precious birthright — Mrs. Brown is so intensely sincere about her adopted country that she is working day and night to get her citizenship papers before Election Day because she would be so proud to be an American voter.

AWHILE BACK, LINDSEY SPIGHT wanted to put a John Baldwin sign in front of his house to influence the trafficeers on Orinda Highway. Mr. Spight had the sign all right enough, but he had no doo-dad to prop it up. Great big sign in need of very large doo-dad, so he bethought himself of many friends and concluded that Ritchie Smith in the trucking business must surely have some proper prop for posting placards in place of packing pieces for portable packets.

Sure enough, Mr. Smith trotted over with a packing case of gargantuan proportions, and they made a frame for Mr. Baldwin. With a sigh of relief and the contentment of accomplishment they stepped back to survey their handiwork and to their most abject horror, they discovered that the setting sun, in all its incandescent glory, shone its beams right smack down Orinda Highway, not only into the eyes of the oncoming motorist but into, through and out the other side of the suddenly transparent Mr. Baldwin.

Undaunted, they scampered to Mrs. Spight for succor and suggestion, and, woman-like, she came forth with the perfect solution — the old blackout curtain hung a bit aft of Mr. Baldwin would most surely cut out the glare. So once again happy days were here again, the pals who plied the panel with the poll as a panoply parked in the parlor and parried procedures for participants on the passing party platforms.

THOSE WHO WENT TO SEE "State of Union" Saturday night probably didn't know that the local Dramateur group had a couple of new stage hands — age 10.

"Gee, Mom, we peeked through the curtains, arranged the furniture on the stage and was it thrilling!"

So now it appears that after going through the ballet dancer ice skater, horsewoman and nurse periods, we are going to end up with a stage hand for a daughter. Wonder if she would mind having "Mom" as an assistant?

WHAT IS A DUFFER? A duffer is something that looks up when it knows perfectly well it should look down — it bends its left elbow which isn't supposed to bend, and doesn't bend several other strategic sections which it is supposed to bend. It forages around in creeks and bushes looking for something which never should have landed there in the first place — it squeals with delight when it gets a good drive, yea even unto the top of its best friend's back swing — it unashamedly tells you that it took 12 shots to get out of the bunker and then forgot to go back and rake up.

It trots out in the morning with a visor on its head and grim determination in its eye, without so much as a backward glance of encouragement for a date in the future with the undone breakfast dishes. It ties up the entire conversation at the dinner table with endless recitations about what it did on what holea and with whata club, to the frustrated agitation of Junior, who would prefer to discuss baseball, and Father, who would prefer to discuss another golf game — his own.

Duffers are something which aren't so hot yet maybe but certainly will be, judging by the way they are going at it in their enthusiastic and systematic way.

More power to the Orinda Golf Club lady duffers (self-named), and here they are:: Masdames Earl Hotaling, Dan Carter, William Sheehan, John Williams, Allan Waddell, Herbert Lueck, Ned Fowler and John Trainor, under the gentle guidance of Captain Mrs. Joseph Downs.

AND SO, MY HAPPY COUNTRY FOLK, comes Election Day — that periodic opportunity to prove to ourselves and our fellow-man that we are free, independent and unafraid to vote for whomever we think fit for the job.

But are you fit to be a voter? Have you studied the candidates and propositions?

If not, Hurry — there is still time!

Youth Group at St. Stephen's Elects Officers

Officers were elected at the meeting of the Young People's Fellowship of St. Stephen's Church held Sunday evening at the Vicarage, 101 Las Vegas Road in Orinda.

President is Chuck Gompertz with Hugh Harris assuming the duties of vice-president. Sally Shipley is secretary-treasurer.

A DISCUSSION GROUP dealing with teen-age problems, the Young People's Fellowship comprises 19 members at present, 13 being in attendance at the election meeting. Members include Bill Seibert, Peter St. Hill, Linda St. Hill, Bob Harrison, Carolyn Demeter, Ann Marie Maddock Chuck Gompertz, Peggy Gompertz, Judy Dunn, Jo Ann Knowles, Sally Ann Shipley, Ann Sparling, Hugh Harris, Marilyn Davis Sue Lamberth, Georgianne Watkins, Dexter Wold Don Bottomley and Allen Bottomley.

In addition to the election members discussed policies, including possible change of name for the group. Plans were initiated for the breakfast following the annual Men's and Bay's Advent Corporate Communion to be held the first Sunday of Advent, November 30.

BREAKASFT WILL BE served by the young people for a free-will offering, a committee of three teen-agers being appointed by the Rev. Charles M. Hill, vicar of St. Stephen's to handle arrangements for the event.

Winners of the contest to list recreational activitits in the East Bay for teen-agers will be announced at the evening prayer service Sunday at 5 p. m. The contest was conducted by Mr. Hill in an effort to point out amusement possibilities in this area. Awards will be made to the girl and boy preparing the best list of recreational facilities.

Predicts Heavy Labor Turnout for Baldwin

Lindsey Spight of Orinda, general manager of the Baldwin for Congress campaign, said this week that endorsements coming into Baldwin headquarters sustain Fortnight's recent survey prediction that John F. Baldwin, Republican congressional nominee, will receive a heavy rank and file labor vote.

"Labor's cause will be well served by John Baldwin," Benny Wagner of Pittsburg, secretary treasurer of Bartenders and Culinary Workers' Union, Local 822, has written Spight.

Dance Postponed By Mothers Club

The Orinda Mothers Club Barn dance originally scheduled for November 15 has been indefinitely postponed, according to Mrs. Marvin Bonds, president. The dance will be held at some future time with the hostesses originally planned, Mrs. Bonds said.

The November Mothers Club will hold a general business meeting on November 18 with a special program to be announced later, Mrs. Bonds said. The meeting will be held at Orinda Community Church if the school auditorium is not open.

Room meetings will take place as follows:

Mrs. Nadia Nicolaysen's Glorietta first grade, next Wednesday, 1 p. m. at the home of room Mother Mrs. Kenneth Brown, 11 Meadow Court; Mrs. Carol Millers morning and afternoon Orinda kindergartens next Wednesday at 3 p. m. in the Orinda kindergarten room, with Room Mothers Mrs. Hugh C. Lowther and Mrs. Fred S. Crawshaw in charge.

Mrs. Tuulie Marttila's morning and afternoon kindergartens will have their room meeting on next Thursday in the Orinda kindergarten room with Mrs. R. Reid, morning session mother, and Mrs. G. Hawer afternoon session room mother.

Next Friday, November 7, at the home of Room Mother Mrs. Eugene Shurtleff, Peggy Rathert's fifth grade and Mrs. Dorothy Hollis' fifth grade will have a point room meeting at 3 p. m. Mrs. George Merriam is room mother for Mrs. Hollis' class.

MRS. BONDS will explain the Mothers Club work. Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of schools, will speak and individual teachers will detail their programs for the year at each room meeting.

Recent room meetings include:

Glorietta afternoon kindergarten Mrs. Barbara Woodard, teacher, and Mrs. W. W. Henning, room mother, held Tuesday at Glorietta kindergarten room: Mrs. Diane Boettchers fifth grade with Mrs. Thomas Moore room mother and Miss Lisa Painters fifth grade, with Mrs. Donald Hunter, room mother, held Wednesday at Mrs. Moore's home, 25 Valley View Drive.

Mary Siefker's third grade class, Glen McNichols' sixth grade, and Mrs. Woodard's morning kindergarten, all at Glorietta also held recent room meetings.

The Mothers Club efforts to sell tickets for the Children's Theater of the East Bay, which will bring four productions to Acalanes High School this year, sponsored by the Mothers Club, was successful, Mrs. Bonds said. Mothers desiring to obtain tickets now may send in the coupon attached to the printed material sent home with each school child, she said.

Need for Gray Ladies Announced

An opportunity is offered to all women between the ages of 21 and 55.

Did you say you had time to spare? Did you say, "What can I do today?" Do you want that good feeling that comes from serving? Then come one, come all and answer the call of the American Red Cross and offer your services as a Gray Lady. They are needed at U.S. Naval Hospital, Oak Knoll, and Camp Stoneman and Camp Parks Base Hospitals.

Applications and necessary forms are available at the Mt. Diablo Chapter House of the American Red Cross at 1395 Ygnacio Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Please bring your applications and forms completed to the Chapter House, Monday between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m., for a personal interview.

For further information call the Mt. Diablo Chapter House at Walnut Creek 5817, or Mrs. J. W. Cottle at Walnut Creek 6196.

Report Heavy Demand for New Version of Bible

There may be hesitation in some quarters about accepting the new Revised Standard version of the Bible, but not in Orinda, according to Mrs. E. D. Howe, wife of the superintendent of the Orinda Community Church School.

Sixty-five out of 80 parents canvassed chose the newly published version in response to a letter sent out by Mrs. Howe. The church presents Bibles to all its children when they reach the fourth grade.

Guild Festival Fun for All

The Women's Guild's Fall Festival and Bazaar was held Wednesday night. Featuring a bazaar, delicious hot baked ham dinner, games and amusements for the child ren, the event was rewarding in satisfaction and fun for all participating.

Martin Smith and Don Phelps were the clowns who sold balloons adding much to the carnival atmosphere. In the hot dog booth, Russell Usinger helped the two chefs by keeping the barbecue fire burning.

THE "SURPRISE" program was even better than was anticipated. Its first feature was a Men's Chorus directed by Marion Brown and composed of Bob Brown, Bill Brunk, Floyd Hornibrook, Jim Hupp Don Krotz, Jesse McMillan, Gene Monroe, Dan Popovich, Al Reid, Ed Richards, Don Popovich and Russ Usinger. Their singing showed amazing talent by one and all.

A hilarious skit followed "How Do-o-o They Do It?" This a take-off in pantomine of the pre-activities for the Festival was directed by Mrs. Arthur Henry. The male actors in women's dresses were Don Anderson, Dick Copenhagen, Pete Englesman, Art Henry, Doug Watkins and Elbert Wayne. Those who saw it are still chuckling over the comedy.

Master o fceremonies for the original program was Jim Davison.

Many thanks go out to those who made posters which were displayed around Orinda — Mary Loveland, Dorothy Anderson, Henry Harris, Judy Hall, Mike Davis, Don Morrow and Roger Almond.

The young folks' band which play ed throughout the evening was greatly enjoyed and especially the trumpet solo by talented Mario Guarneri.

Master of ceremonies for the ori- Guarneri. The band was led by Jasper Allara.

Proceeds from the affair will go towards the Guild's treasury which is used for many church and philanthropic needs.

First Aid Study Now Under Way

A new series of First Aid instruction by the Mt. Diablo Chapter, American National Red Cross, is under way. The classes are held at the Chapter House at Walnut Creek City Park.

Standard First Aid is taught Tuesdays and Thursdays, 7:30 p.m., by J. J. Connolley. Advanced First Aid is taught Mondays and Wednesdays, 7:30 p.m., by Frank Williams. The six-week courses started last week.

The State Park service on Mt. Diablo requested a class in standard First Aid, and the Chapter sends an instructor to the mountain every Tuesday and Thursday. Anyone living on the mountain is welcome.

The Red Cross is anxious to accommodate everyone who wishes a First Aid course ,and a class will be organized in either category as soon as the required minimum of people have applied.

Regulations require 10 people as a minimum for a Standard First Aid class, and 8 for an Advanced First Aid class. Further information may be obtained by telephoning the Chapter House, Walnut Creek 5817.

Zion -- 'Standards Can Bring Better Government Here

"Extravagance, corruption and mismanagement are the three causes usually given for the excessive cost of American local government," declares William R. Zion, research director for the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association.

Of these, mismanagement is by far the most costly, he added, though corruption and extravagance naturally come in for more publicity. "Mismanagement is something that quietly goes on everyday behind the scenes, in the way things are done, the way offices are set up, and in unnecessary activities. It is not deliberate waste, and the ordinary citizen cannot usually put his finger on it," Zion says.

Pointing out that local officials are anxious to do a better job, Zion adds: "By promoting the establishment of standards to measure the comparative quality and quantity of local operations on a cost basis, we could then take pride in knowing that our city, for example, was doing a better job of, say, fire protection than another city. This competition would also be politically profitable to the officials getting the credit."

The Taxpayers' Association is working toward this end by adapting the concept of "performance budgeting" to local government use, Zion stated. "This is a way of making and measuring expenditures in terms of production or service rendered, rather than merely figuring out how much money is needed for each type of expenditure," he explains. "The spotlight is on how much service is bought, and at what cost per unit."

Red Cross Begins First Aid Course

The Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, is giving a Standard First Aid Course especially for Pleasant Hill area residents every Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Classes are conducted in the firehouse on Oak Park Boulevard. Anyone over 16 years of age may attend.

All persons interested are also invited to join a class in "Mother and Baby Care" which will meet every Friday evening at the Red Cross chapter house in the Walnut Creek city park.

Interested persons are urged to call the chapter house at Walnut Creek 5817 for additional information.

Halloween May Be Bit Intellectual

Hallowe'en fun got off to a fine start last week as two Orinda School authors sent essays to the SUN.

Holly Borden, a third grade youngsters, wrote, "Hallowe'en is fun. On Hallowe'en we go to party's. Party's are fun too. We like party's. You do to."

And Lauren Smith, a second grade student, wrote, "Hallowe'en is fun. On Hallowe'en we go to party's. Pumkins are fun. I like pumkins, do you?"

If these are any indications, Hallowe'en may be a shade on the intellectual side this year.

Cub Pack 212 Plans Years Activities

The first meeting of Cub Pack 212 of Orinda was held recently for the purpose of discussing the year's activities and paying recognition to those boys who had earned awards.

The following boys were introduced as desiring membership: Chris Lyser, Dickie Wood, Ricky Meriam, Bruce Wilke. They will officially become members at the next regular meeting in November.

Bruce Bromley and John Zanatti were initiated into Cub Scout work by participating in the Bob Cat ceremony.

These Cub Scouts received awards: Wolf — William Sheldon, Timothy Sheldon, Tommy Fiske, Charles Dunlap and Roger Wright.

Silver stars on Wolf went to Stephen Smith and Barry Howard. John Coates received the silver star on Lion.

The pack recently enjoyed a trip to the Chabot Observatory where they were given an opportunity to view several planets and constellations. A very interesting and enjoyable time was had by all.

Pack 212 looks forward to an active year with emphasis on many group programs.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Fellowship Hall of the Community Church on November 14.

DON'T BLAME WEATHER

You can't blame it on the weather! In 84 per cent of the 32,500 fatal motor vehicle accidents last year, the weather was clear or merely cloudy. It was rainy, snowy or foggy in only one out of six fatal accidents.

Communion Rites At St. Stephen's

Conducting the Communion service for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Charles M. Hill will speak on "A glimpse Into the Afterlife," as part of the Communion of Saints and Prayers for the Dead devotions this Sunday at 5 p. m. in the Orinda Community Church.

Under the direction of choirmaster Sherwood Thatcher, the St. Stephen's Hymn of the month, "All Praise to Thee My God," will be sung by the choir in canon form.

The hymn, written by the English organist, Thomas Tallis in 1567, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, was composed to be sung in canon, or round, form. It is also very effective as an anthem or hymn, and has been introduced to the congregation of St. Stephen's as the first hymn of the month, in the program to acquaint members with selected church music.

Mrs. T. J. Fahay will be at the organ, offering as prelude "Contemplation" by Smith, and "Postlude in F," Opus 28, No. 7, by Cappelan.

In the Sunday school after the opening religious service, motion pictures will be shown the children of all ages, with the assistance of Jack Rands and his movie and sound equipment. Rands will show motion pictures for the Sunday school classes on the first Sunday of every month, while Communion service is being conducted in the main church building.

Mrs. Rands, together with Mrs. Richard Fayhram, is in charge of the primary grade of the Sunday school, and has long been active as a member of St. Stephen's.

Girl Scouts Open Clothing Drive

A clothing drive for the children of Korea, sponsored by Orinda Girl Scout Troops 35, 58, and 75, got underway Monday and will be held until November 15.

Clothes should be gathered now but not brought to the collection depot until the week of November 10 through 15. The depot is an empty store in the Village. Persons bringing clothes here must get the key from Orinda Motors which is two doors away.

Alice Bowlar will collect all clothing. Those who have clothes to donate have been urged to call Orinda 2020.

Helping the girls with the drive are members of the Women Realtors group.

Leaders of the Girl Scout Troops are: Mrs. Ed Slusser, 58; Mrs. R. H. Hartsough, 35; and Mrs. Sig Groenings, 75.

INCREASE IN JOBS

Manufacturing employment in California increased by 3 per cent between mid-June and mid-July as a result of seasonal expansion in fruit and vegetable canning and continued gains in aircraft, Paul Scharrenberg, California director of industrial relations, announced. The gain in aircraft employment alone was sufficient to outweigh losses attributed to steel shortages, Scharrenberg added.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

'State of Union' Among Dramateur Top Productions

By ALVIN GUTHERTZ

"State of the Union," one of the finest plays ever presented by the Orinda Dramateurs, will be given once more tomorrow night in the Acalanes High School auditorium at 8:15.

The play, timely and topical, deals with fictional political figures in the Republican Party as they search for a presidential candidate during the period prior to the national convention.

Excellent in chief roles are Robert Atkinson as a leading industrialist selected as the possible candidate and Dorothy Hanford as Mrs. Matthews, who turns in an exceptional performance.

ED O'BRIEN as James Conover, Lou Warner as Spike MacManus and Pat Winkworth as Kay Thorndyke are good in other lead roles.

Outstanding in character parts are Luke Kentfield as Judge Jefferson Davis Alexander, Betty Reynolds as Mrs. Alexander and Leonard Nachman as Sam Parrish.

Others in the cast who turn in near-professional performances are Margaret Kozak, Harry Rasmussen, Keene Pettengill, Monique Eschne, Don French, Phil Simmons, Bruce Winkworth, Frances Omo, Frank Wright, Fred Udall, Tom Allinson and R. G. Smith.

A TALENT SCOUT in the audience would have a field day as the actors bring their various characters to life, thanks to the capable direction of Edward O'Brien.

Because the play is full of timely comments that can almost be part of tomorrow's headlines, "State of the Union" moves along at a fast clip.

Perhaps the outstanding scene occurs at the cocktail party as the play nears its climax. Howard Lindsay's and Russell Crouse's dialogue as a commentary on American politics is biting, furious and very cynical.

CREDIT MUST BE given to the production staff who did fine jobs in their behind-the-scenes work. They are Hilda Probert, Lucius Kentfield, Malcolm Lowman, Pat Winkworht, Barbara Warner, Kay Brown, Wirtabel Harris, James Stanislawsky, Carol O'Brien, Norma Betz, Jeanette Wright, Nancy Hanley, Patty Stevens and Leonard Nachman.

Some of the lines on opening night were slightly botched and perhaps one or two characters spoke a wee bit fast, but all in all, the Dramateurs can well be proud of their truly outstanding production.

Dr. Wayne Rood Guest Preacher Sunday Morning

Dr. Wayne R. Rood, professor of religious education at the Pacific School of Religion, will be the pulpit guest of Rev. Fred Morrow and will preach at the 11 a. m. service of Orinda Community Church Sunday.

A graduate of Salem College in West Virginia, Dr. Rood attended Alfred University and Hartford Seminary for his theological training, later completing his work for the Doctor of Theology degreeat the Berkeley institution where he is now teachink.

He was recently elected a vice-president of the national Conference of Seventh-Day Baptists, the church of which he is a member.

Professor Rood has announced that he will speak on the topic "The Search for Satisfaction."

Plant Cover Crops

Contra Costa County farmers are urged to seed cover crops now, according to the Contra Costa Soil Conservation District directors.

Farmers are advised to drill in or broadcast their cover crop and cover by light disking or harrowing to a depth of 2 to 4 inches. Mist popular mixture for cover crop in this area is purple vetch with oats or barley.

Woicekowski Family Seeks Change of Name

The Stanley Woicekowski family of Rita Way have made an application in Superior Court to change their name.

Stanley Woicekowski, 35, owner of a Berkeley auto glass shop, would like his name changed to Stan Stanley.

His wife, Blanche Louise, and daughters Candice Louise, 5, and Valentina, 2½, all want their last names changed to Stanley, also.

Basis for the change, according to the application, is that Woicekowski is hard to remember, spell and pronounce and is therefore a handicap both in business and socially.

All members of the Woicekowski family are native Americans.

Farkasch Family Files Complaint

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice G. Farkasch of 36 Lost Valley Drive have filed a complaint against Fred T. Wood, Inc., because of a home they purchased in Lost Valley Estates in April, 1951.

Although the house was new when they acquired it, floors now squeak, doors slant, nails protrude, bricks are missing from the fireplace, the master bedroom was flooded because a connecting water pipe was too short, improper drain pipes allowed water to overflow on the roof line, and the kitchen floor has small "humps" all over it, the complaint states.

The plaintiffs have asked for rescinding of the contract under which they purchased the house, cancellation of a promissory note and deed of trust, and refunding of the down payment and cost of improvements made on the home in the sums of $7769 and $1500.

Also asked is a preliminary injunction restraining the defendant from selling the property under the deed of trust.

A hearing on the injunction plea has been set for November 10 in Martinez Superior Court.

White Marries As Divorce Battle Comes to End

Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Stevens became the bride of C. Wadsworth White, Oakland Attorney, last Friday on the same day that his hotly disputed divorce with Dorothy White of 1 Las Vegas Road became official.

White met his bride two years ago when he represented her in a divorce case. Since that time, charges and counter charges in the marital battles of White and his wife have filled the air.

Mrs. White disappeared from her home last April with her two children, Cynthia, 8 and Lee, 5. Judge Hugh H. Donovan issued a bench warrant for Mrs. White and county authorities are still searching for her.

The newlyweds, meanwhile, have gone to Mexico for a three week honeymoon trip.

Dr. Cleland to Start Series of Talks on Bible

A series of constructive Biblical interpretations under the general title "The Bible Brought to iLfe" will begin Sunday at Orinda Community Church under the Rev. Dr. Gail Cleland of Berkeley.

Continuing the popular adult education program scheduled each Sunday morning at 9:30, Dr. Cleland will begin his six-week series with an introductory lecture on the subject "New Acqaintance With Ancient People." He will deal especially with new discoveries by archeologists which throw light on Biblical problems. Following sessions will introduce individual characters represented dramatically in the first person.

For 12 years minister of the First Congregational Church in Alameda Dr. Cleland was prominent in community affairs and a leader in Northern California church activities.

He has traveled widely in Asia and during World War II served in Korea and Japan as a colonel of chaplains. Later he was assigned to direct the democratic education program for South Korea. With his son he is now engaged in business.

Minority Problem To Be Discussed Monday

Chi Lambda Chapter of the Delphian Society will study the problems and potentialities of minority groups living in a democracy Monday at the Orinda Community Church.

Mrs. Paul F. deBruyn Kops will lead the seminar and speakers will be the Mesdames M. Pierce Milton, George Young, Jess E. Rauch, Robert J. Powell, Mervyn H. Porter.

Garnett King – Call Him Colonel, Suh

Garnett King of Moraga Road has been made a full fledged Kentucky Colonel by order of Lawrence Wetherby, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

King was born and raised in the blue grass state but moved away when he was but a youngster. Recently he returned to his native state, paid his respects to Governor Wetherby and was made a colonel.

Kings commission, which is framed on the wall of his home, reads, "Know ye all that honorable Garnett King is commissioned a Kentucky Colonel and is entitled to all rights and privileges of this rank."

The citation has the official seal of the state, is signed by the governor and is decorated with two blue ribbons.

King, who is 75, is a retired Southern Pacific official. He served 47 years with the railroad during which time he met many leading national and international figures.

King has lived in Lafayette since 1934.

MT. DIABLO RED CROSS CHAPTER has started another busy year. Four of the officers discuss plans at the Chapter House at Walnut Creek City Park. Left to right are Eldo T. Ewert of Walnut Creek and Lafayette, treasurer; Edmund S. Barnett of Walnut Creek and Lafayette, chairman; Donald W. Mitchell of Walnut Creek, vice-chairman, and Rev. Fred R. Morrow of Orinda, vice-chairman. The secretary, Mrs. Fred Winkins of Concord, and a third vice-chairman, Helen Dolge of Diablo, are not in this picture.

Patricia Malvey Now in Phrateres

Patricia Malvey, a 1951 Acalanes graduate and winner of an Acalanes Parents Club scholarship, was accepted in the Nu chapter of Phrateres recnetly at Santa Barbara College of the University of California.

The Phrateres, called the "Romans," is a social and service organization for college women. As a new member she was honored at a pledge dinner following the pledge ceremony.

Miss Malvey, during the college term, lives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Jackson.

Some thirty of the "Romans" are scheduled to come by chartered bus to Mills College on November first to attend a football game and to be weekend guests at the college.

3 Hours After Classified Ad, Pet Back Home

With the loss of their pet, a family can suddenly feel mighty lonesome and sad.

This was just about the case of the F. C. Merner family of Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette, recently when "Taffy," a Shepherd dog and the family pet, was missing for nearly a week.

The dog had last been seen by the Merners on a Saturday. They placed their ad in the Contra Costa Shopping News and the Walnut Creek Sun, the Lafayette Sun and the Orinda Sun the following week. Three hours after it appeared in the Contra Costa Shopping News that Thursday, they were called on the phone. "Taffy" was returned.

That's just another example of the quick results obtained from a single ad in the Contra Costa Shopping News, the Lafayette Sun, the Orinda Sun and the Walnut Creek Sun.

Mervyn Wall In Hospital

Mervyn Wall of Orchard Road was taken to Oakland's Providence Hospital Sunday night with a blood clot on the brain, according to Dr. Joseph Vizzard.

During the week his condition has been showing improvement but Wall will be in the hospital for some time, Dr. Vizzard said.

On U. C. Pelican

Joanne L. Neuman and Sue Tomer have both been selected for membership on the women's staff of the California Pelican, the official humor magazine of the University of California.

Joanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Neuman of 3322 Glenside Drive while Sue is the daughter of Mrs. Terrell Tomer of 791 Moraga Road.

Canyon Callings . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Scholin have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patsy, to Pete Kallas of Concord. The young couple met at Acalanes where Pat graduated in '51 and Pete in '50. No date has been set for the wedding.

The new Mrs. Buddy Pine (nee Lillian Cooper) was feted at two bridal showers last week. On Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Wayne De Tar in Walnut Creek, a group of friends surprised her with a shower of miscellaneous gifts. The next evening in the Canyon home of Mrs. Claire Meacham, neighborhood friends presented her with gifts which will aid in stting up housekeeping at the Pine's new address on Dewing Avenue in Lafayette.

RICHARD BIERMAN, injured in an auto mishap last week, is progressing nicely. However, he must remain flat on his back for at least two weeks.

Mrs. Velma Clouse, upon reading about the rattlesnake recently caught in Lafayette exclaimed: "I didn't know rattlesnakes were such an oddity in this area — just the last hot spell my neighbor, Mr. Jenks, shot one on my front path." The snake was equipped with five rattles and a button and Mrs. Clouse has them to prove it.

Den 1 of Canyon Cub Pack 57, as a project, made barbecue forks out of wire coat hangers.

The boys were so anxious to try out their finished products that Den Mothers Virginia Scholin and Ruth Seeds arranged a barbecue dinner which took place last Tuesday at Mrs. Scholin's in place of a regular "working" meeting.

There is a new fence along the creek at Canyon School. All the men and boys, and Mrs. Day, are to be complimented on their fine workmanship. In place of dinner music, Joe Knipe furnished, via a portable loudspeaker, a football broadcast while workers ate the excellent noon meal provided by the women.

The Camp Fire Girl-Mother volley ball match played last Sunday in Tinytown (mothers the winners) resulted in one casualty — Lana Foster injured her arm so severely she must wear it in a sling.

NADINE ELLIOTT was launched on her career as a Stanley saleswoman recently by a group of Canyon women who attended the Stanly party held at the home of Mrs. Ruby Timmons.

We have three new school gals in Canyon. Eva Thune and Rose MacKenzie are taking an evening business course at Merritt Business School and Pearl Goss is attending a sewing clas at Oakland Technical Night School.

Canyon School's football team and girls' volleyball team came out second best when they played Glorietta School in Orinda last week. This was the third of a series of inter-school competitive games played this season, with a record of one victory and two losses.

There are no "pupils" at school this afternoon. In their place is an assortment of weird souls, eerie spirits and pretty sprites to celebrate the annual school Hallowe'en party. Winners of prizes will be reported next week.

Buy your Christmas cards and gift wrappings from the Camp Fire Girls — they have a wonderful selection this year.

HOUSEHOLD HINT: If you keep bologna or salami in the freezer and find it hard to slice, take a tip from Gilvey Musser. He says a power saw makes an excellent substitute for a meat slicer.

Kid quip: The little girl (name withheld) asked by company how old she was, answered, "I'm six." Then she politely added, "And Daddy's 40 and I don't know how old mother is, but Daddy said she came out here in a covered wagon."

Political note: A Canyonite quotes, "From where I sit, the average theater audience more accurately predicts the outcome of the presidential elction than any other survey." Well, next week will tell—see you at the polls.

Final Show of 'Weep No More' Tomorrow Night

The last performance of "Weep No More My Lady" will be presented by the Lafayette Playshop tomorrow night at Town Hall at 8:30.

This musical play on the life of Stephen Foster has enjoyed a popular run before local audiences for the past month.

Those who have seen it have been loud in their praise not only of the talented cast, headed by Bruce Handley, Adrienne Sowers and Frances Shurtleff, but also of the beautiful costumes provided by Director Louise Welty.

Singled out for special praise in supporting roles have been Bev Miles as father Foster and Jan Hamilton as E. P. Christy, "King of Minstrel Men."

No one should miss this gay show of the musical ups and downs in Stephen Foster's life.

Tickets may be obtained from Playshop members or at the door.

Pastor Berven's Talk Announced

"Campaign Promises" will be the title of Pastor Luther Berven's sermon Sunday morning at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette. Two services are held each Sunday, the "Early Bird" service at 8 a.m. and the morning worship with the a capella choir at 11 a.m.

Commenting on his sermon, Pastor Berven states :

"Another presidential campaign is drawing to a close: another election day is approaching . . . God is campaigning, too, not just for votes but for people themselves. His campaign promises are recorded in the Bible, and they are forever true. Jesus Christ guarantees the worth of the individual, the rights of the laboring man, the equality of the sexes, and, above all, He promises forgiveness through His suffering and death for every sin."

At the Family Service held each Sunday morning at 9:30, Pastor Berven is speaking on the "Miracles of the Bible." The Family Service is part of the Sunday School hour; classes are offered for all ages from three and up, including adults.

Sermon to Deal With Three Kinds Of Temptations

In his sermon at Lafayette Covenant Church Sunday morning, Rev. Joel S. Peterson will deal with three kinds of temptations. He describes these as follows:

"The temptations which Jesus faced in the wilderness were quite similar to those we meet in life. He was tempted on three levels: to put His materials needs above the spiritual, to use sensational short cuts instead of hard and sacrificial effort, and to stoop to dishonorable methods to gain His ends."

These kinds of temptations, Rev. Peterson says, are referred to in Matthew, the 4th Chapter.

Holy Communion will be observed as part of the morning worship.

At the 7 p.m. service the sermon topic will be "If Jesus Were President."

Irving Dies On Deer Hunt Trip

Theodore R. Irving, 46, of Lafayette, died of a cerebral hemorrhage while on a recent deer hunting trip, according to an October 24 United Press reslease.

Irving is the third deer hunter to die of natural causes in the Elko-Wells area in Nevada so far this season, the U. P. said.

Sunday Sermon Topic: Security

At both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services at Lafayette Community Methodist Church Sunday, the sermon will be, "Is Security Possible Today?"

Scriptural background will come from the 6th Chapter of the gospel according to St. Matthew, Verses 25-33.

The pastors, Bishop George A. Miller and Rev. Harry E. Shaner, say:

"We hear so much about security. We hear about the mutual defense pact of Europe to insure the security of Europe. We are engaged in a police action in Korea under the direction of the United Nations to insure the security of the world."

Ed Givins Wins Kickoff Kontest

By picking nine winners out of 14 listed football games, Ed Givins of 3760 Sundale Road, Lafayette, won last week's Kickoff Kontest sponsored by the Lafayette Sun, the Walnut Creek Sun and the Orinda Sun.

Although five persons tied for first place, Givins' entry was the earliest one received in The Sun office. He was awarded a doy-or-night football.

Others who selected nine winners are James McDowell and Dick McConaugh of Lafayette, Tom Alamano of Walnut Creek, and Cal Unnevehr of Orinda.

James Gilwee and Jim Small of Orinda and N. Sonntag, Jeff Babcock and Jerry Smith of Lafayette all picked eight winners.

Bob Kesselring and Ed Burr selected seven winners each.

'Forgotten Man' Wakes at 4 A. M.

After awakening at 4 a. m. recently, Frank W. Williams of Clyde found himself the sole occupant of the Tunnel Inn Restaurant.

It seems Williams fell asleep in the men's room and was left unnoticed when the restaurant was locked up for the night.

Williams discovered a telephone and called the sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriffs John Kirschner and Lionel Shepherd were called out to rescue Williams.

As they arrived at the restaurant, the "prisoner" was emerging from a side door which he found he could open from the inside.

The confinement was not planned by either the management or by Williams.

I'm Unhappy

By Bill Simpson

Last week I got quite a start. I met a friend of mine in a local restaurant. And he said, "Bill, in a few months we're going to be draping our living room. We want to do it first cabin and we'll be in to see you. My wife is going to run into town this week and pick up a pair of low cost draperies for the bedroom."

I asked him why the heck he didn't come into our place to get the low priced stuff.

And he commented, "You just handle high class stuff, don't you?"

I asked him what made him think so.

He said that our good looking store and the smart materials draped in the window gave lots of people that impression.

Now this is just plain BUNK.

We are in business to furnish draperies and carpeting to every prospective buyer — whatever your needs or whatever your budget.

If you have any notion that we can't meet downtown prices on your carpet and drapery needs, come in and let us prove otherwise. Take a look at the accompanying box in this ad. This is not a "special purchase," "close out" or "sale price." It is our regular, low price.

Candidates Answer Sun's Questions

John F. Baldwin

1. MY PERSONAL EXPENDITURES in the Primary Campaign are a matter of record in the office of the County Recorder, and consist of the following: Candidate's filing fee, $250; personal traveling expenses, $87.10; preparation of mats, cuts and pictures for publicity purposes, $47.97; postage and telephoning, $116.83; total, $501.90.

My personal expenditures in the Final Campaign up to October 25 are a matter of record in the office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives and consist of the following: personal traveling expenses, $81.84; advertisement, $15; postage, stationery and telephoning, $155.62; total, $252.46.

All other campaign expenditures have been made by campaign committees which will comply with the law as to filling statements of expenditures after the final election. I have not been able to attend the meeings of these committees and do not know what their estimated expenditures will be. I do know that this citizen's movement has had so much volunteer help that it has reduced materially what has had to be spent. Funds have been raised entirely from individual contributions and fund-raising dinners, as the Federal laws bar any contributions to a Congressional compaign by either labor unions or corporations.

JOHN F. BALDWIN JR.

2. I BELIEVE THAT the present inequities in the Taft-Hartely Law should be corrected. I believe the waiting periods prescribed in the law ar too long, and that some of the penalities are unduly burdonsome.

As to the argument as to whether the law should be amended or repealed, I think the whole argument is beside the point. Everyone recognizs that we must have a labor law. I don't think it makes any difference whether the present law is repealed and replaced with a new law, or whether the present law is ammended, as long as we arrive at an EQUITABLE labor law.

3. I FAVOR a Federal Fair Employment Practices law. As to the argument that such legislation should be left to the states, I do not believe that the states will take care of the problem, particularly the Southern States.

The theory upon which our country is built is that all people should be treated equally, regardless of race, color or creed. A Fair Employment Practices law will be a step toward obtaining such equality in practice as well as in theory.

4. I OPPOSE federal control of the California Tidelands, and believe that control of the Tidelands should be restored to the states by passage of federal legislation providing for such restoration. This position is supported by the heads of both parties in California, Governor Warren and Attorney General Brown.

I believe in restoration of the Tidelands to the states for two reasons: (1) It will avoid a further concentration of power in the hands of our Federal Government, and (2) California will then receive the income from our Tidelands for the use by our State Government for the benefit of the citizens of this sate, whereas under Fereral control the income will diverted all over the 48 states.

5. I BELIEVE THAT communist infiltration in our government IS a major problem. The best evidence of this is the recent report of Genral Bedell Smith, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, telling about the tremedous difficulty of keeping the Communists from infiltrating his own agency.

FBI reports on the number of Communists in the various states of the union further point up the ranger. Our State Department is an example of an agency that has been infiltrated by Communists and Communist sympathizers.

6. AS TO SENATOR McCARTHY, I sometimes agree with him and sometimes I don't.

I do not agree with his statements as to General Marshall, as I do not believe General Marshall was a traitor to his country, although I believe some of his policy decisions as to the Far East were misguided and based on State Department Far Eastern advisors who were too sympathetic toward the Chinese Communists.

7. YES. To eliminate the mess in Washington, we should elect a new administration. The present administration apparently has no real urge or desire to clean up the "mess," and I do not believe a candidate who has the ardent support of the present administration will be able to act with a clean hand.

The most important thing to insure that the "mess" is cleaned up is to elect an administration to office that has a strong urge to clean it up, and which won't owe any favors to anyone now in the administrative departments. I believe that such a new administration should appoint a commission for the purpose of studying and eradicating inefficiency and corruption in our administrative departments.

8. I OPPOSE a national compulsory health insurance plan.

I do not believe the Federal Government should enter this field for two reasons: (1) It will avoid a further concentration of power and activity in the hands of our Federal Government, and (2) I believe that private health, medical and hospitalization plans, such as Blue Cross, California Physicians' Service, Permanente Health Plan and the various insurance company plans can adequately provide for the major needs in this field. Where private enterprise can provide for th need, I believe it should be given that opportunity.

9. GENERALLY, I AGREE with the National platform of my party, although my position on a Fair Employment Practices Law, as stated in my answer to Question 3, is a stronger position than that taken in the Party Platform.

10. I AM GOING to vote in favor of State Proposition No. 3. This is a state issue rather than a Congressional issue, so my vote is simply that of an individual citizen.

I might say that my name appears on a petition to submit Proposition No. 3 to a vote of the people, as I believed at the time the ptition was submittd to a vote of all the people. However, I personally am going to vote in favor of the proposition, as the other 47 states exempt private schools from taxation, and I think the exemption should be uniform.

11. I BELIEVE foreign aid should be continued, but that we should establish requirments of certain cooperative action on the part of those foreign governments receiving such aid.

I do not believe some of these governments have been carrying their fair share of the burden.

12. I BELIEVE THAT the South Koreans should be trained to as high a state of military effectiveness as possible, so that they can reduce some of the burden now being borne by our troops in the front lines. However, I do not believe that this would enable us to withdraw our troops from Korea, as I don't believe the South Koreans alone could hold the line.

I would be in favor of accepting the offer made by Chiang Kai Shek some time ago, of sending some of the Chinese Nationalist troops to Korea to be trained there and also used in the Korean battle line. This would further reduce the burden now being borne by the U.S. troops.

Here Are the Twelve Questions:

Last week The SUN asked our assembly and congressional candidates questions, which were intended to disclose specific views on issues. This is a custom of The SUN before every election.

All 12 were put to John Baldwin and Bob Condon. Just two were asked Harold Mutnick and Don Doyle, because they answered a long list in the Sun before the primary election.

The questions are:

1. HOW MUCH WILL BE SPENT on your campaign from the beginning through the general election? (Estimate of expenditures from all sources as well as your own pocket.)

2. Do you approve or disapprove of the Talf-Hartley Law?

3. Do you favor or oppose a federal FEPC law?

4. Do you favor or oppose federal control of the California tidelands?

5. Is communist infiltration in our government a major problem?

6. What do you think of Senator McCarthy?

7. Do you have any specific suggestions to eliminate the "mess in Washington"?

8. Do you favor or oppose a national compulsory health insurance plan?

9. Generally, do you agree with the platform of your party? If you disagree in part, on what specifically?

10. Are you for or against State Proposition No. 3 (tax exemption for non-profit private schools below college grade. The SUN last week erroneously described No. 3 as "tax exemption for parochial schools." Parochial schools are one category included in the proposed exemption.

11. Do you believe foreign aid should be continued at its present scale, should it be limited, or eliminated entirely?

12. What is your opinion of the proposal that the South Koreans can be trained to continue the Korean war, so that our troops can be withdrawn?

Robert L. Condon

1. CAMPAIGN EXPENSES: I have personally spent during the campaign $559.49. This does not include my personal expenditures for gas and oil or other personal expenses arising from visits to various parts of the two counties. I estimate these latter expenses at approximately $500. My campaign comittee to date has spent $1,185. In addition, sums have been spent upon my behalf by various groups that have given fund-raising dinners, or that have raised the money by individual solicitations. I do not know the amount thus spent, but I believe that it will be less than $7,500.

The above figures are for the general campaign. Before the primary, I estimate that a total of $5,000 was spent on my behalf. Of this sum, I paid only the filing fees, plus my gas, oil and personal expenses.

2. THE TAFT-HARTELY Law: I disapprove of the law. Some of my objections are that it has re-instituted the federal labor injunction, outlawed since 1932. By forbidding accepted bargaining practices relating to union security, the law has led to considerable industrial strife. The new concept of employee unfair practices has, on occasion, forced members of a union to act as strike breakers. The inflexible national emergency cooling off period created by the law has obstructed good faith in collective bargaining between labor and management.

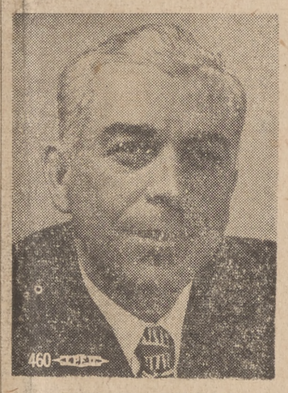
The act was passed in heat, and in the language of the magazine, "Business Week," given a few million unemployed workers in America, given an administration in Washington that was not pro-labor . . . and the Taft-Hartely Act conceivably could wreck th labor movement."

3. FEDERAL FEPC: I am in favor of a federal FEPC act similar to the Humphrey's bill. have voted for FEPC legislation in both of my legislative terms, because I bevieve that economic discrimination because of race, religion or color at the basic point of economic well-being (i.e., the right to a job) is completely abhorent to the American system.

Federal action is necessary because if an enlightened state like California will not pass such legislation, what can we expect in Alabama? As a practical matter, I favor an amendment to the Senate rules that have allowed the filibuster to kill such legislation.

4. TIDELANDS: The Supreme Court has held Fereral interest in the Tidelands to be paramount over the States. The issue is whether federal control of submerged oil lands is in the national interest.

Oil is the most basic singe of war and is in short supply. If war comes oil from the Near East and South America is endangered. Consequently, I believe reserves must be maintained and off-shore oil treated the same as the oil under United States public lands elsewhere. I believe that some equitable proration of the royalties upon extraction can be arranged, but unlimited exploitation without regard to future military necessity seems to me unwise.



ROBERT L. CONDON

5. COMMUNIST INFILTRATION in government: Communist infiltration in government is a problem, but not a major one. Hundreds of thousands of federal workers have been screened by the loyalty boards. In the procedure followed, the employee is not given the basic rights of cross examination or confrontation of witnesses. Even so, only a tiny fraction of a percent of the total of federal employees have been discharged for security reasons.

Communist influence in government is probably at its lowest ebb today than it has been in the past 25 years. A hysterical communist hunt would undoubtedly discourage able persons from securing federal employ and encourage others to leave it.

6. SENATOR McCARTHY: I consider Senator McCarthy one of the most dangerous men in public life. Typical of this approach was the Wheeling, West Virginia, speech about "205 card carrying Communists" in the State Department. Upon examination, he turned up no Communists, card-carrying or otherwise. McCarthy has alienated our needed allies abroad and his position it seems to me, gives comfort to anti-American propagandists. His use of a forged photograph to defeat Senator Tydings, his acceptance of a $10,000 fee from Lustron Corporation, are illustrations of cynical political immorality that decent people despise.

The irresponsible attack, and the reckless charges without evidence, if not combated by reason, can only lead to an atmosphere in which free thought and free speech are impossible.

6. THE "MESS in Washington:" The quoted phrase places the issue in an exaggerated framework. Obviously, I believe that every person who has betrayed a public trust for his or someone else's benefit should be exposed and prosecuted. Those who corrupt as well as those who are corrupted should bear the consequences. For example, I was happy to see the indictment of the mysterious Mr. Grunewald, the 1950 go-between carrying $5,000 from Senator Brewster to Senator Nixon. I applaud the exposures by Senators Kefauver, Fullbright, Hoey and Douglas, and by Congressmen King and Chelf. These Democrats have done most to publicize the offenders, and I believe quick prosecution should follow.

Further Congressional inquiries are in order, and patronage jobs such as Collectors of Internal Revenue should be placed under Civil Service. I am equally convinced, however, that all but a handful of government employees are honest and concientious.

8. HEALTH INSURANCE: I believe in the principle of national compusory health insurance. Such a plan, on a federal level containing the principles of the bill presented to the State Legislature by Governor Warren seems desirable.

Health insurance is the best, and in some cases, the only protection for the low and middle income groups from the costs of medical treatment. A program similar to California's disability insurance with federal-state action and the continuance of voluntary insurance plans, such as the California Physician's Service might be considered.

9. PARTY PLATFORMS: I am in whole-hearted agreement with the Democratic Party platforms on both the national and state level, and have no major disagreement with either.

I was one of the principal authors of the State platform, which in many respects parallels or reflects the national platform.

10. PROPOSITION 3: I voted for Proposition 3 while a member of the State Legislature and still favor it. By use of the word "parochial," however, the question is misleading, since the exemption applies to all non-profit private schools at the high school and elementary levels, and not merely the parochial schools. The latter, of course, are the largest single group, amounting to approximately 60 per cent. Education of our children is the primary problem of the State of California. The encouragement to private education given by No. 3 seems warranted. 47 states grant such an exemption.

[illegible] schools represent a capital outlay of many millions of dollars, relieving public education to that extent. Moreover, no public funds are expended nor should be be expended on the education of children in private schools. Under these circumstances, I believe we can afford the annual exemption which amounts to approximately $700,000.

11. FOREIGN AID: I believe that foreign aid can be curtailed and is being curtailed as the economies of Europe are struggling back to their feet. The Marshall type of assistance probably can be entirely eliminated in the years just ahead.

Revival of world trade, which is a form of foreign aid, through reciprocal trade agreements, and the Point Four Program of giving technical assistance to backward countries, should be increased. These programs require relatively small expenditures and in the long run are sounder than any give-away program.

12. SOUTH KOREAN Troops: At the outbreak of the Korean War, North Koreans were poised against South Koreans. The United Nations, and principally the United States, supplied troops because the South Koreans were unable alone to withstand the onslaught. Chinese armies of course, are now involved on the other side. South Korean troops are being extensively used, and indeed recently they have been bearing a substantial portion of the attack.

To adopt the plan of having only Asians fight Asians poises serious problems, including its effect upon the United Nations. A truce must be reached soon upon the principal that armed agression by one state against another is forever outlawed. In the meantime, I believe we should try to undertake cease fire negotiations.

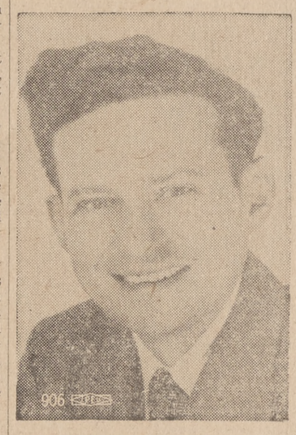
Harold Mutnick

1. CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURES. My wife and I spent $1,601.32 in my Primary election campaign. This was the total and exclusive amount expended and came out of our own pocket. I had no committees working in my behalf and no financial contribution from any outside source whatsoever.

I estimate that my General Election campaign will cost approximately $2,500. Ths wil be the total amount expended from all sources, by all committees, and by all private citizens working in my behalf.

2. PROPOSITION 3. I favor a "yes" vote on Proposition 3, which would exempt from taxation property used exclusively for schools of less than collegiate grade owned and operated by non- profit religious, hospital or charitable organizations.

The measure would merely right a taxinequity which exists in our property tax structure. Since the 47 other states exempt these non-profit private schools from taxation without suffering the burdens and abuses bewailed by opponents, California should likewise. The private schools perform a community service in helping alleviate some of the over-crowding of our double and triple-session public schools.



HAROLD E. MUTNICK

I reject the view that this Proposition is a parochial school measure. It pertains to all non- profit private schools, religious and non-religious. The injection of the religious issue in opposition to this measure is condemnable and foreign to the Aemerican political scene.

Donald D. Doyle

IN ANSWER TO your question on how much will be spent on my campaign from the beginning through the General Election, I should like to state that the monies expended in the Primary campaign are a matter of public record on file with the County Clerk in Martinez.

As to the money being spent for General Election campaign expenses, that is all being handled by Mr. Ed Larmer, my campaign treasurer, of 1545 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, California. I personally do not know how much money has been received or disbursed. In compliance with the law, after the election, I shall file a full report with the County Clerk.

DONALD D. DOYLE

AS TO YOUR SECOND question, regarding Proposition 3, I have consistently taken the position that this is a matter of referendum vote by the people of our great state and is not an issue of the local Assembly race.

I have discussed this proposition, along with the 23 others, with various groups throughout the 10th Assembly District. In every instance I have tried to present an impartial, unbiased picture of the pros and cons of this and the other propositions.

Four Candidates Issue Final Campaign Statements

At the request of the SUN, the Republican and Democratic candidates for Congress and the State Assembly have submitted the following statements.

The statements by Republican John F. Baldwin, Jr., and Democrat Robert L. Condon, candidates for Congress from the 6th Congressional District and by Republican Donald D. Doyle and Democrat Harold E. Mutnick, candidates for State Assembly from the 10th Assembly District, are made almost on the eve of next Tuesday's election.

Coming toward the close of one of the most spirited campaigns in area history, these statements, as well as the candidates' replies to SUN questions (appearing elsewhere in this issue), will, the SUN feels certain be studied with great interest by the voters.

Harold E. Mutnick

People have asked me continually throughout the course of my campaign for the Assembly seat from the 10th District why I, a total newcomer to politics, was willing to enter the political arena in our community.

"Hal," they would ask, "why expose Dorothy and yourself to the brick-bats and whip-lashings and glaring-spotlights of the American political scene?" "Is it worth it?" "What's in it for you?" "As for me,' they would say, "I wouldn't have any of it."

Having come this far in two campaigns, the June Primary and the November final, I appreciate somewhat the sincerity of the questioners. What I challenge, however, is their lack of faith in the American political system and the American political creed.

I am thrice-blessed in a wife who feels the way I do about our wonderful American community, and together we feel that active participation in community functions is the duty of an enlightened citizenry. A very important part of the community function is its politics, and if not enough of us are willing to run for public office, it is then that our governmental machinery falls by default into the hands of professional politicians and party bosses.

"Politics", has, to some of us, became a dirty word synonymous with stealth and selfishness. But I feel that just gripping about community conditions is not enough. A keen and active interest in our politics is the only way toward finding solutions for the problems of our rapidly growing county.

I don't offer cure-alls, or quick solutions. What I offer is a sincere and honest approach to those problems, mindful and leary of the selfish motives of special pressure groups who operate in Sacramento.

One's ideals are meaningless unless tested to the extent of personal sacrifice.

Donald D. Doyle

We have tremendous problems confronting us locally insofar as our highways are concerned and in our inadequate educational setup, which forces double and triple sessions in most of our schools.

These problems grow in size when one looks toward our future in Contra Costa County. Statisticians have estimated that by the year 1960 we will have over 600,000 residents in this couny and nearly 4,000,000 in the next 50 years.

If we do not secure adequate rights-of-way now, in the future we will be forced to spend millions of dollars securing these same rights-of-way and moving business and residential properties back from the highways.

I thoroughly believe that we must give some sort of state aid to the people in our newer subdivisions who suffered untold property damage through floods last winter.

In the light of our anticipated growth, we must concern ourselves with securing adequate fresh water for residential and industrial use. The answer to this lies I believe, in the creation of a salt water barrier.

As the father of two boys and as an instructor on leave from the East Campus of the Contra Costa Junior College, I am vitally concerned with securing adequate teaching classrooms for the citizens of this district, not only for the immediate present but in light of our future needs.

If elected, I will work with all responsible groups with the aim of doing the most good for the majority of our citizens.

John F. Baldwin

The people in the Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek area were the driving force in intiating a series of Citizens' Meetings in February and March of this year at Acalanes High School to select a qualified candidate to run for the new Sixth District Congressional seat. I was selected by a Citizens' Screening Committee from a field of 13 candidates.

I am a member of a pioneer Contra Costa family, and am the son of a farmer. I grew up on a farm near Danville. I was graduated from the University of California in 1935, where I was a member of Phi Beta Kappa honor society and also a member of the Track and Cross-Country teams. For the next five years I was Assistant Manager of the South-Western Publishing Company in San Francisco.

In April, 1941, I volunteered and enlisted in the U. S. Army as a private. I was in the Army five years and worked up through the ranks to Lieutenant Colonel. While in the Army, I served successively as Director of Training of the Army Finance School, Chief of the Foreign Fiscal Affairs Branch of the War Department in Washington, D. C., and Executive Officer of the Office of Fiscal Director, Mediterranean Theater at Caserta, Italy. I was decorated by the Italian Government in 1946 for my work in lire devaluation.

I am at present attorney for the Contra Costa Housing Authority, for the Concord Hospital District and for he Diablo Public Uility District.

In the Primary Election, I received the largest popular vote of any of the six candidates running for Congress, 47,457 votes, of which 18,370 were Democratic votes. I believe this evidences the confidence of the voters in my candidacy and their enthusiastic support of the grass roots citizens movement of which I am standard bearer. This is a movement of the people to restore honesty and integrity in our government.

Robert L. Condon

As the campaign closes, I am confident that the voters will elect a Congressman whose position on issues is known. As a legislator for four years, I have been on record on dozens of controversial matters which are the same or similar to issues that are important in Washington. Consequently, I have a voting record and the voter is not required to rely merely upon promises. My record in the fields of education, housing, labor, agriculture, tide lands, civil rights, civil liberties the Central Valley and other issues has been clearly indicated by my vote in Sacramento.

I have waged a campaign on these issues and have not resorted to any personal attack upon my opponent. His supporters on the contrary, have spentthousands of dollars attacking my integrity, my loyalty to my country, in scandalous and near libelous fashion. I deeply resent this type of campaigning and I think that the majority of the people in the district also reject it. I hope they express their resentment by their vote on November 4 .

I am a democrat, and I am campaigning as such and have received the backing of Governor Adlai Stevenson. My opponent has attempted to conceal his Republican connections, has resorted to the technique of fictitious committees of Democratic supporters in an effort to deceive the voters. Until recently, my opponent's position on many of the important issues was unknown, and even now his stand on such matters as federal aid to education, the Taft-Hartley and McCarren Acts, and other matters, is ambiguous and equivocal.

In the Legislature, I was considered an effective member, as is attested by the unanimous resolution of my colleagues, Republicans and Democrats alike, praising my legislative ability. I have conscientiously worked for the needs of our county in Sacramento on matters of great local concern, such as school construction, highway and traffic problems and flood control. If elected to Congress, I intend conscientiously to continue to help with these local problems wherever federal assistance is advisable or necessary.

Finally, I congratulate The Sun for giving us all this practical demonstration of freedom of the press. During the campaign, The Sun papers have set an example of impartiality and fairness that other papers might well follow.

1800 Girls in Diablo Valley Area Join to Celebrate Girl Scout Week

Girl Scouts of the Diablo Valley area join girls throughout the world in celebrating Girl Scout week this week.

The story of the Girl Scouts in their first years is a story of the tireless energy and enthusiasm of Miss Juliette Low. In her memory the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund for the promotion of Girl Scouting and Girl Guiding throughout the world as a contribution toward world peace and good will, was established in 1927.

AN INTERNATIONAL Chalet was established abroad and the Edith Macy Training School in New York State. Materials for uniforms, clothing, food, and other supplies have been sent from this fund to children in many foreign countries and to needy groups in this country.

Workshops for leaders have been conducted on an international as well as national level, and funds for rehabilitation of war areas have been regularly supplied. Local troops celebrate Juliette Low's birthday today, to make their contributions to the fund at this time.

GIRL SCOUTING is a sister organization of the Boy Scouts, having been founded in England by Miss Agnse Baden-Powell, sister of Sir Baden Powell, founder of Boy Scouts in England.

The Girl Scout promise: On my honor, I will try: To do my duty to God and my Country, To help other people at all times,

To obey the Girl Scout laws, and the laws:

1. A Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted.

2. A Girl Scout is loyal.

3. A Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others.

4. A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout.

5. A Girl Scout is courteous.

6. A Girl Scout is a friend to animals.

7. A Girl Scout obeys orders.

8. A Girl Scout is cheerful.

9. A Girl Scout is thrifty.

10. A Girl Scout is clean in thought, word and deed.

These are the pledges made by every Girl Scout evidencing her desire to become a better member of her family group, a better citizen of her community, and a loyal friend internationally. The promise implies trust, honor to God and country and faith to one's own relations, thought of others at all times, unselfish friendliness in sharing skills and talents, and obedience to a code of honor in daily living.

THE GIRL SCOUT slogan "Do a good turn daily," and the motto "Be Prepared" are indicative of willingness and ability to do the job well.

The program throughout the year is concerned with learning and practicing skills in Agriculture, Arts and Crafts, Community Life, Health and Safety, Homemaking, International Friendship, Literature and Dramatics, Music and Dancing, Nature, out-of-doors, and sports and games.

Locally, the Girl Scout movement is represented by a Council of 650 adults, with a board of 22 members. The adult members consist of Troop Committee members, leaders, co-leaders and committee members.

THERE ARE 1800 registered girls in the council which covers Pleasant Hill, Ygnacio Valley, Alamo, Danville, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda. All adults contribute their time and abilities on a purely volunteer basis. Funds to maintain the program are contributed by individuals and organizations during the combined Boy Scout-Girl Scout annual financial drive.

Troops have contributed to community projects such as Christmas toys for hospital patients, cookies and gifts for hospitals serving at the Blood Bank, help at the crippled childrens day camp, Child care for community organizations.

FROM THE age of seven through high school, Girl Scouting aims to show a girl how to use in a practical way what she has already learned, to encourage her to develop abilities and appreciations as yet untrained ,and most of all, to help her get along with others, to develop a strong character, a healthy attitude toward life, and an enduring set of values.

Price To Guide 'Y' Work Here

Announcement was made this week by Ben Rickli, general secretary of the Berkeley YMCA and A. W. Elkinton, chairman for development of work in East Contra Costa County, of the appointment of John A. Price as executive secretary. The field of work to be covered will include the area between Orinda and Concord.

Price has been connected with the Berkeley YMCA since 1941. He progressively was assistant boys' work secretary and boys' work secretary at the Central Buiding. After spending three years in the service, he returned to become Berkeley area boys' work director. In 1951, Price took a year's lave to secure a Master's Degree in group work from the School of Social Welfare, University of California.

During six of the 11 years of his connection with the YMCA, he also served as director of the Berkeley YMCA's Summer Camp Guala in Sonoma County. He is immediate past president of the Berkeley Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A SURVEY OF YOUTH needs recently completed by William Coston under the direction of chairman Elkinton and Dr. Galen Fisher, with the help of the Pacific Southwest Area Council of the YMCA, revealed youth-serving needs especially in the younger age and high school level. The YMCA already has in operation the Indian Guides program for fathers and sons, ages 6 - 9, a Hi-Y program for high school boys, and a Y's Men's Club which is a service club of the YMCA for young men between the ages of 21 and 35. This club helps to provide leadership for youth groups.

The extension Committee under Elkinton's chairmanship is being enlarged into a Board of Management.

In commenting on the appointment, Chairman Elkinton stated, "We are fortunate to have a man of Price's training and experience help solve some of the emerging youth problems in this fast growing area."

The program for the immediate future will consist of non-equipment "group work" type of program Present office headquarters are located at 2095 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, telephone Walnut Creek 9070.

County Plans Set For Day-Long CD Training Drill

Contra Costa County will participate in the statewide command post exercise sponsored by the state office of Civil Defense on Sunday, November 23 from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

"More than 700 persons will be involved in Bay Area operations during this coordinating test conducted between the regional control center and all operational area civil defense staffs," Harry J. Stoops, civil dtfense coordinator for Region 3 said.

Speed in communications and efficiency will be tested during the day long drill.

Each area control center will work steadily in three shifts of four hours each during the day in order to give service chiefs and their two participation.

Such services as fire, police, evacuation and welfare, transportation radiological, communications, first aid, medical, supply, engineering, utilities and traffic control will be asked to call upon all available come to the rescue of stricken areas.

The exercise will involve no actual movement of personnel but will test communications and coordination in winning a "paper war" on the home front.

The Regional Control Center located in the Berkeley hills, will direct operations from that point.

Professional Men Back Ike, Nixon

A Contra Costa County branch of the Doctors and Dentists for Eisenhower and Nixon Volunteers has been formed under the chairmanship of Dr. Charles R. Sweet Jr. of Walnut Creek.

In the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek area, the original committee consists of N. E. Betaque, D.D.S.; T. H. Sorenson, D.D.S.; L. O Bishop, D.D.S.; S. F. Jensen, D.D.S.; C. M. Johnson, D.D.S.; Roger Stark, D.D.S.; N. J. Rush, M.D.; R. R. Haumeder, M.D.; Ted Lyon, M.D.; Fletcher Taylor, M.D., and W. M. Caygill, M.D.

Among the medical and dental men who have joined forces in the campaign in this area and are offering their services and names in support of the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket are: Orinda, E. J. McCord, W. A. Laitinen, J. V. Holcombe, C. W. Smith and W. W. Greenlaw.

In Lafayette, J. Vizzard, H. M. Sandford and W. W. Ornduff, and in Walnut Creek A. H. Beede, R. R. Hammeder, Louis De Mea, C. G. Woolman, Mary Lou Eilert, C. R. Smith, F. E. Thomas and J. W. Scott.

Preview Exhibit of Art Show Sunday

Sunday will mark the preview exhibit of the Diablo Art Association's show at the Artists Market at 10:45 Stuart Street, Lafayette.

Artists whose work will be displayed during November will be honored at the preview party from 5 to 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served by members of the Artists Market Committee for 50 cents.

The public is invited to meet the artists and view the display of Christmas items.

Artists showing paintings and pottery at the Market include:

Helene Allbright, Phyllis Chamberlain, Eleanor Condon, Joseph Butler, Emily Dascalus, Edith Dinkin Hazel Elling, Florence Gulli-Rossi, Katie Hassler Dale King, Hiram Meulendyke, Nils Ospenson, Olive Rogers June Schneider, Claudia Steel, Doris Traban and Muriel White.

The Artists Market is open regularly on Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Therapy Center Fund Drive Ends

This week marks the close of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center's fund drive. The response has been widespread, and the totals have been encouraging.

This purely local project, operated by and for central Contra Costa families, has gained much more than money in this campaign. Many contributions have been accompanied by notes expressing gratitude to the Center for help given to the sick, the crippled and the maimed, according to the Center's staff. Large numbers of Contra Costans have investigated the work being done and have expressed approval by generous contributions.

Patients who have been treated at the Center, and their grateful families, have gone out among their friends and have solicited funds.

While the fund campaign officially ends this week, workers at the Center say they know of many contributions that will come later. It is known that some friends of the Center plan to send in monthly checks.

Keeping the Center alive has often been difficult. However, the response to the present request makes it seem probable that this local institution will continue to care for those who need its services.

'Aladdin' Coming Here November 15

The East Bay Children's Theater will present "Aladdin" on November 15 in the Acalanes High School auditorium at 2 p. m. Tickets will be on sale at the box office.

Ike Wins Don Straw Ballot Vote

With results of the straw ballot taken by the Junior Statesmen tabulated, Acalanes again proved to be predominately Republican. Students like Ike by a ratio of 4 to 1, and prefer two other Republican Candidates listed on the ballot by almost the same ratio .¼ ¼ ¼

The results came as no particular surprise. Although Contra Costa County often goes Democratic, the area encompassing the Acalanes School District is largely Republican. In a straw ballot during the 1948 Presidential election. Acalanes favored Dewey by a ratio of about 5 to 3.

The following are this year's results:

President of United States:
Adlai E .Stevenson 186
Dwight D. Eisenhower 769

Congressional representative for the 6th district:
Robert Condon, Democrat 202
John Baldwin, Republican 748

Assemblyman for 10th district:
Donald Doyle, Republican 775
Harold E. Mutnick, 146

Happy Ike supporters now only need to hope that the school's ability to pick a winner will not continue as it has in the past.

Your hometown merchants depend on you to enable them to keep in business. So, naturally, they offer you the best buys you could get.

School Days Point Up Need for 'SLOW—Children at Play' Signs

Fall term of school hasn't changed the need for motorists to be careful of youngsters playing in residential areas, judging from the demand for those "SLOW — Children at Play" signs offered by the SUN.

In fact, the need seems greater, since some drivers may think all the children are at school. Actually, of course, pre-school children are just as playful as ever, as are the school kids when they're not at school. And, also, there's the weekend . . .

The large, attractive, easily read signs — black lettering on yellow background — are available at the Walnut Creek Sun office, 1409 Main Street, Walnut Creek, above Thompson Electric; the Lafayette Sun and Orinda Sun office, 1000 Orchard Road, Lafayette, and the Orinda Pixie Shop in Orinda Village.

Although such signs usually are priced at $2.50, they're being sold by the SUN, as a public service, at the cost price of $1.75. Because of this arrangement, there can be no billing — the signs must be paid for when they're obtained.

The weather-proof signs are made by the Frank E. Sellers sign company.

Christian Science Sermon Includes Matthew Verses

The Bible citations in the Christian Science sermon for Sunday, November 2, on the subject "Everlasting Punishment" will include these verses from Matthew:

"If a man have a hundred sheep and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And I say if that he find it, verly I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray" (18:12, 13).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following:

"A louder song, sweeter than has ever before reached high heaven, now rises clearer and nearer to the great heart of Christ; for the accuser is not there, and Love sends forth her primal and everlasting strain" (p. 568).

Auxiliary Group Hears W. Winter

William Winter, noted San Francisco radio and television news analyst, was the featured speaker at the Richmond Memorial Auditorium on October 14 at a luncheon meeting of the Contra Costa Unit of the Women's Auxiliary to the Alameda-Contra Costa County Medical Society.

"Issues and Personalities in the Elections" was the subject of Winter's talk.

Following Winter's talk, Mrs. Charles Hart of Walnut Creek, president of the Auxiliary, conducted a short business meeting.

Next luncheon meeting will be held November 14 at Faust's in Walnut Creek.

At that time, Professor Harold Winkler of the Political Science and Foreign Policy Department of the University of California will be the guest speaker.

Mental Health Unit Elects New Members

Executive Committee of the Central Contra Costa County Mental Health Chapter of the Northern California Mental Health Society elected 10 members at a special meeting recently.

Included in the group are Walton Kirk of Hudson Avenue, and Dr. Franz Wasserman of Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek; and John McKirahan of Willow Drive, Lafayette.

No doubt about it — the most convenient and most economical shopping is at hometown stores!

Benefit Breakfast, Broadcast Sunday For Palsy Society

A breakfast and radio broadcast for benefit of its Shadelands Ranch School will be held Sunday by the Contra Costa Cerebral Palsy Society.

The event will begin at noon with dancing to be held from 1 to 3 p.m. at El Nido Rancho in Lafayette. The broadcast will be over station KLX. Among guests will be Beatrice Kay.

Tickets are $2.50 with more than half of the proceeds to go toward buying equipment for the new school which is scheduled to open in about two weeks.

Another breakfast and broadcast will be held for the same purpose at El Nido Rancho on November 9.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Gene Newman, W. C. 3792; Mrs. Bean Oyer, Concord 4746; Mrs. L .G. McKeever, Orinda 2807, or at the Walnut Creek Liquor Store at 1983 North Main.

Acalanes Tangles with Antioch Tonight

Local Eleven Is Still Undefeated In League Play

The Acalanes Dons have their work cut out for them as they meet Antioch, Diablo and Pittsburg on successive Fridays to close out the 1952 pigskin season.

The Dons at present are in a three-way tie for the top spot, but the picture will change soon, with the Dons encountering their co-leaders in league standings.

TONIGHT THE DONS travel to Antioch for league game number 4 Kickoff is at 8 o'clock.

From scouting reports and from scores, the Dons enter the contest no better than an even bet to remain in the select winners' circle.

ANTIOCH HAS A new club this season which uses the split T very effectively under the guiding hand of Coach Riggins, who comes to Antioch for the first time with high recommendations based on his past record.

Tony Mercado quarterbacks the Paper City eleven and sets a fast pace, with his brilliant running and passing.

THE DONS HAD trouble with John Swett's passing last week and only a garrison finish enabled the Dons to eke out a 32-32 tie.

Antioch's line is a heavy one and has been particularly effective on offense.

THE DON ELEVEN has displayed some fine running and passing of its own but has been vulnerable on defense, particularly via the air lanes.

Practice drills all week have stressed defense on the ground and in the air, to the point where the Dons appear to be set for tighter defensive play.

TONIGHT'S GAME will be another crucial for the Dons. A win will keep them in title contention, but a loss would greatly dim their hopes.

Fullback Ray Williamson, off his four-touchdown performance last week against rugged John Swett, appears to be back shape after a leg injury in the Albany game two weeks ago. He accounted for 144 yards on the ground last week, which is good ball toting in any league.

Captains for the Antioch game tonight are halfback Fred Ravazza and Guard Joe Conley, as announced by the coaching staff yesterday.

Fred Ravazza Lou Schrepel Bob Carlson

FRED RAVAZZA IS A SENIOR who plays defensive left half and in addition does duty as offensive right half. Fred is a sure tackler and a hard runner who is putting in his second year of varsity play. LOU SCHREPEL, a junior, started the season at right half but has been moved to the fullback spot and has proven himself to be an effective line plunger and is a good open field runner. BOB CARLSON is another junior who operates from the left half spot and lacks only experience to put him in the top bracket.

4 Minutes, 14 Points – Dons Tie Swett 32-32

The Acalanes Varsity is still in the undefeated class at the top of the league, along with Diablo and Pittsburg as the result of a spine-tingling fourth quarter, three-touchdown finish last Friday night.

In the final four minutes of play the Dons racked up 14 points, and their terrific comeback gave them a 32-32 tie with the highly and justly rated John Swett Indians. The league game was played under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

JOHN SWETT came to town with its best team in a decade, and from early results appeared ready to swamp the Dons, as the Indians passed and ran their way to a 19-6 halftime lead. This appeared unsurmountable, as far as the Dons were concerned.

John Swett dominated the first half wiht the pin-point passing of Ray Vallejo and the running of Dick Zampa, who caught passes all over the place and in the course of the evening accounted for three touchdowns.

CROCKETT'S FIRST score came at the end of a series of plays the first time they got their hands on the ball, with Zampa taking an eight-yard toss from Vallejo on fourth down for the score and Vallejo running over the conversion point from the three-yard stripe.

The Dons came back strong, and after a series of runs booming fullback Ray Williamson crashed over from one yard out. The attempted conversion kick was blocked, and it stood 7-6 in John Swett's favor. The half ended 19-6 when Gordon Harrah tallied twice, once on a five-yard run and next on a 20-yard pass and run. Both conversion kicks were wide.

THE DONS STARTED the third quarter in good fashion. Williamson smashed over from three yards out to make it 19-12. The conversion pass was dropped.

Vallejo got back into the act early in the fourth period when he tossed a pass to Dick Zampa, who scampered into the end zone untouched, with the play consuming 52 yards. Zampa split the uprights with a conversion kick and gave the Indians what appeared to be a comfortable 26-12 lead.

MANY FANS THOUGHT it was all over at this point, only to find how wrong they were when the Dons took the kickoff, drove to the 15-yard stripe on a series of ground plays and then sent Williamson into pay dirt on a wide end sweep, to make it 26-18. The conversion try failed.

John Swett came back and scored from 30 yards out when Vallejo tossed an aerial to Dave Peters, all alone in the end zone, and it was 32-18 with four minutes on the clock.

EVERYONE BUT the Don players thought the old ball game was all over. But bedlam broke loose when End Mike White took a 30-yard pass from Quarterback Bart Ferro and outsprinted would-be tacklers the remaining 34 yards to the end zone. Sammy Indelicato circled end for the extra point, and it was 32-25.

The Dons got out of a tough spot with less than two minutes to go when Indelicato kicked a short high ball which ended up with Jim Burns recovering on John Swett's 45. A pass and two running plays brought the ball to the two-yard mark, and Williamson scored his fourth touchdown on a smash over tackle.

THAT MADE IT 32-31, and it was tied all up when Roger Owen literally ran over three would-be tacklers to score the all-important point.

John Swett made a desperate bid for victory but their hopes were dashed when Owen intercepted Vallejo's long pass. The final gun sounded before another play could be run.

THE GAME WAS the wildest and most wide open ever played at Acalanes Memorial Field in its 12-year existence.

Both elevens were brilliant in their offensive play, and the Dons' fighting comeback will long be remembered by those who saw or played.

DIABLO AND PITTSBURG played a tie 19-19 thriller of their own that night.

The Dons had a total of 356 yards on the ground and in the air, to 326 for John Swett.

Acalanes had 15 first downs to Swett's 13. Swett punted twice, to the Dons' once.

Brave Peerless, That Ol' Prof, Dopes 'em Out

By PROF PEERLESS

The cry has been that upsets have been practically non-existent this season, but no sooner was the cry out that the upsets took place.

The Washington Huskies upset Stanford's applecart, and U.S.C. certainly upset Cal, particularly when they shut them out on the scoreboard.

The grid season is getting along, and it is getting tougher to pick, instead of easier.

CHOICE PICKS for the week:

Cal over U .C. L. A. The Bears were stung down south and appear ready to take it out on the Bruins. Then the Bruins topple U.S.C. and that makes it a three-way tie for the Rose Bowl!

Stanford trims San Jose as they have too much passing for the Prune City eleven.

IDAHO TAKES a trip to Pullman to meet Washington State and drops the ball game, with Washington State winning its first conference game.

IN THE HIGH SCHOOL league, John Swett takes Alhambra into camp, and it's a Swett win, 23-13.

Pittsburg has a field day at Albany, and too much speed and power mean a Pitt win, 42-6.

The Dons travel to Antioch and face another toughie, to eke out a 20-19 win.

Don Comeback Against Indians Proves Mental Attitude's Importance on Grid

By ERWIN MATTSON

The Acalanes Varsity made one of those unbelievable comebacks last Friday night to tie up a thriller with the John Swett Indians.

The clock showed four minutes to go and the Dons 14 points to go to tie the ball game.

It was at this point that the Dons caught fire, when Bart Ferro tossed an aerial 20 yards to End Mike White and Mike rambled 40 yards into the end zone. The conversion try was good, and seconds later the Dons tied it all up by recovering a fumble and going all the way and converting again.

The Whole change came about when the Ferro - White pass put the Dons in contention and as a result of mental attitude they couldn't be stopped.

A great deal of any game is mental, and football is certainly a large part mental. Desire to win or lack of it is what causes a team to be up or down. The desire has to be coupled with relaxation. Intense desire sometimes causes a player to fumble as he tenses up from "trying too hard". In part that's what happened to the Bears at Los Angeles.

One thing that has been very noticeable with the Acalanes Varsity football team this year has been the feeling of the players for one another. As one player put it, "There are no stars — we play, win or lose, as a team.

The group has worked long and hard at their practice sessions, and it will be interesting to see how they fare from here on out.

Knights Defeated By Diablo J. V. — Score: 39 to 14

The Las Lomas Knights suffered a 39-14 loss in a league game at the Las Lomas Field yesterday afternoon when Diablo's experience and depth proved to be too much for the Knights to overcome.

Diablo jumped to a 13-0 first quarter lead and had things pretty much their own way until Las Lomas came to life in the second half.

THE KNIGHTS scored in the third quarter on a pass from Rick Ostrom to End Dick Jordan, good for 20 yards.

Bob Lucas ran the conversion try over on a quarterback sneak, and did it again when the Knights scored on another pass, this time for 25 yards from Ostrom to End Arney Lundquist.

Las Lomas had beaten Albany and Alhambra, but had lost to the Don Babes.

Don Jones at center, Bob Lucas at quarter and Ends Dick Jordan and Arney Lundquist were outstanding for Las Lomas.

Don Babes Meet Diablo Devils Next Thursday

The Acalanes Junior Varsity football team meets the powerful Diablo Devils at Concord next Thursday afternoon, and the game will go a long way toward determining where the Don Babes will end up in league play.

Kickoff in the game at Mt. Diablo High's field will be at 3 p.m. instead of the usual 3:30 starting time.

Undefeated to date, the Dons are tied with Pittsburg for the top spot, with both elevens showing nothing but wins.

The Pittsburg eleven rates as one of their best, and the same goes for the Dons — but the Dons will have a big obstacle to overcome in the Diablo Club, which has but one loss, and that to Pittsburg.

Knights-Antioch Next Thursday

The Las Lomas Knights travel to Antioch next Thursday, where they will play the Antioch J.V. eleven. On the basis of performance, the local eleven could cop another win.

The Las Lomas Knights have been the surprise of the J.V. league, giving a good account of themselves each week and winning more often than was generally expected, particularly in view of the fact that it is their first year of competition in the pigskin sport.

Coach Callow reports that there has been a slump in practice the past week, but he expects the tempo to quicken when game time approaches.

Captains for the game have not been announced, as the Knights make a practice of having the squad select the captain just prior to the kickoff.

Acalanes J.V. Tramples Over Antioch, 32-12

The Acalanes Babes gave indications of things to come when they scored with four minutes to go in the first quarter and converted to take a 7-0 lead over Antioch's Junior Varsity yesterday afternoon at Acalanes Memorial Field.

The final score of 32-12 didn't show the game as it was, because Antioch came back strong when they scored early in the second quarter as the result of a 20-yard pass and a run of 12 yards which placed the ball on the two-yard mark. From there Fullback Ray Angstrom bucked it over. The conversion kick was wide, and it was 7-6.

THE ANTIOCH Panthers held the Dons on the ensuing kickoff, then proceeded to toss a pass good for 35 yards, which placed them back on the Dons' five. The scoring chance failed when, on the next play, illegal use of the hands set the Panthres back 15 yards, and the Dons held, taking over the ball.

The setback proved to be temporary, however, as the Dons were held and on a fourth-down attempted kick the ball was lost when Keith Lescure backed into Richard Jones, who was attempting to punt.

Antioch took over on the four and scored on the first try. The conversion try was high enough but wide, and Antioch led 12-7 at halftime.

COACHES Bob Stevens and Gene Ridley evidently told their charges a thing or two, for the boys came out fighting the second half. They took the kickoff back to their own 47-yard mark and scored from there.

DALE MARCELLINI took a handoff from Quarterback Mike Barrett and ran a beautiful broken field to the 17-yard line. Barrett then tossed a pass, good for 10 yards, to Gary Gudnason, and the score came with Marcellini going the final seven yards on a well executed reverse. Jones had his conversion kick blocked, and that gave the Dons a 13-7 lead, which they soon lengthened when Barrett passed later in the quarter from 15 yards out, to hit End Jim Larsen in the end zone. The conversion went wide, and the Dons were out in front 19-12.

ANTIOCH CAME back throwing the ball, only to have John Watkins intercept early in the fourth quarter, and seconds later Halfback Richard Munn scampered around end on a reverse play good for 23 yards and touchdown number 4 making it 25-12 when the conversion kick by Jones was blocked.

Antioch's only other threat came when they intercepted a pass from Jones and came back to the Dons' 20-yard line, only to lose it on downs. That proved disastrous for them when the Don Babes, in a series of running plays and passes, reached Antioch's 23-yard mark, from where Munn repeated his previous touchdown on exactly the same reverse and going exactly 23 yards to score standing up.

Jones split the upright in the conversion try, and it was Acalanes 32, Antioch 12, with the gun going off before either eleven could get in scoring position again.

THE WIN KEPT the Don Babes in the undefeated class in league play, and as a result in a tie with Pittsburg for the number 1 spot.

Vikings Meet Placer Tomorrow

Three former Acalanes High gridders will be in the starting lineup when the East CCJC Viikngs go gunning for revenge tmorrow night against Placer J.C., in a game at Martinez.

After five straight victories, the Vikings finally met their match last Saturday night in Salinas when the still unbeaten and untied Hartnell J.C. Panthers emerged with a 19-0 decision in a rugged, hard-fought encounter before 5200 fans.

Because of a torn ligament suffered by regular Right Halfback Sal Costanza, John Daniel, ex-Acalanes end, will get the starting call against Placer. End Bob Borghesani will open as usual, along with Tackle Jim Forni on the defensive team.

AMONG THE MANY standout defensive stars for CC was Forni, the big, 200-pounder who held firm against a quick-starting Hatrnell line that couldn't gain but also didn't budge.

Hartnell Coach Dick Vorhis revised his defense to stop the Vikings' great L. C. Joyner. Following a bruise which he received on his left leg in the first half, Joyner was ineffective, and because of that CC's offense was whittled down 50 per cent.

THE VIKINGS HAD bad breaks against them, including a fumble, 15-yard penalty and an intercepted pass which led directly to touchdowns. The first Panther tally came in the opening minutes of the second half when Hartnell's Tony Teresa recovered Ron Andersons' fumble on the Contra Costa 30.

On the first play, Quarterback Chuck Dillard took to the air but his pass was intercepted five yards in the end zone by Borghesani, who ran it out to the Hartnell 33. However, a roughting-the-passer penalty was slapped against the Vikings, and Hartnell was presnetde a first down on Contra Costa's 15.

It took them seven plays before Dillard sneaked into the Viking end zone for the initial score.

THE VIKINGS MISSED a scoring opportunity in the first quarter when Tackle Sal Siino recovered a fumble on the Hartnell nine. But in four plays, CC was able to advance only four yards.

Students Find Living Cost Up

Acalanes business math students as a practical problem in mathematics and everyday living, last week completed work on a survey of the cost of living for a family of four in the Acalanes area. According to student economists, it takes approximately $5,841.14 to keep a local family of four comfortable.

Basing their survey on local insurance rates, consumer goods advertising in area shops and newspapers, student statisticians found approximately $1,447 for relaxation and entertainment; a minimum of $2,218 for food and clothing, with food ranging around $1,243.40 per year.

According to students in the Acalanes business math class, the girl of the family spend around $300 a year on clothes, with her mother and father espending $275 each and her brother $175.

A similar survey last year found the average family budget for four persons requiring a little over $5200 This year's sudvey indicates a rise of slightly less than $600. Students however, point oot that last year's survey made no account of monthly family savings, which this year were estimated under $20 a month.

This will be the first camellia show ever held by the club.

Contest on T. B. For School Press

Student journalists representing elementary, junior and senior high schools in Contra Costa County have been invited to take part in the 16th Annual School Press Project on Tuberculosis, Harold DeFraga, chairman of the information and public relations commitee of the Contra Costa Public Health Association, announced.

Sponsored nationwide by the National Tuberculosis Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the project locally is under the auspices of the Contra Costa Public Health Association. Certificates of Honor will be awarded to the school papers which publish outstanding articles, editorials and cartoons in their November and December issues.

Subjects for this year's project will be: "Our Town's Needs in the War on T.B." and "What Does Tuberculosis Mean to Me?" DeFraga pointed out that the project helps student writers and their readers attain a better undersanding of the part the Christmas Seal plays in the fight to control T.B.

Entries are to be sent to the Contra Costa Public Health Association, 502 Ward Street, Matrinez, by December 22.

"Whatever you do - Vote "Yes" on 2"

Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers —they all say: "No matter how deeply you differ on election day over candidates and other ballot issues—whatever you do, vote 'YES' on PROPOSITION 2!"

That's because:

PROPOSITION 2 meets fairly and squarely the school crisis brought about by the twin pressures of inflation and increased population.

PROPOSITION 2 increases the State's share of local school support, and relieves the mounting tax burden on homeowners.

PROPOSITION 2 makes sure that California's future citizens have the educational opportunity they need now!

More than 200 California organizations, local and statewide, including the following, join in urging you to vote YES on PROPOSITION 2:

California Congress of Parents and Teachers
California State Chamber of Commerce
California State Federation of Labor (AFL)
California Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO)
All Railroad Brotherhoods
Veterans of Foreign Wars of California
American Legion (more than 75 posts)
California Farmers, Inc.
California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs

United Taxpayers, Inc.
Native Daughters of the Golden West
California School Trustees Association
California Association of School Administrators
California Federation of Women's Clubs, S. F. District
Los Angeles Board of Education
San Francisco Board of Education
California State Department of Education

A "yes" vote also is urged on Proposition 24—to replenish the State loan fund from which districts may borrow to build desperately needed classrooms.

REMEMBER—WHATEVER YOU DO—

You'll Like Dracaena Godseffiana — A Plant That Will Brighten Your Home

By BERT WRIGHT

THE INDOOR GARDENING SEASON is again at hand. From now until early spring folks will rely on house plants to brighten up their homes and satisfy their love of gardening.

One of the most interesting and beautiful house plants is the Dracaena godseffiana. A slender foliage plant with spotted white leaves, godseffiana does not require close attention to remain decorative. Moreover, because it does not need a great deal of light, it is useful in many spots throughout the home.

Normally godseffiana can go without water for one to two weeks. However, if it is placed near a radiator or sunny window, it may require watering as often as twice a week. Do not overwater, however, because the plant is quite tolerant to drying and uses very little water compared to many house plants.

THIS LOVELY PLANT will also tolerate night temperatures ranging from 55 to 75 degrees Fahrenheit without ill effects.

Just as is the case with most any house plant, proper feeding is extremely important for the finest growth of Dracaena godseffiana. The handiest way to provide proper nourishment is with tablets. Feed at the rate of two tablets for a six-inch pot. For plants in a 10-inch pot use four tablets. Vary the number proportionately for plants in larger or smaller pots.

Place the tablets along the edge of the pot — about an inch away from the rim — and space them six inches apart. Make holes one inch deep and drop the tablets in. Cover with soil and water thoroughly. Repeat two or three times a year.

AS THE LEAVES of the godseffiana catch dust easily, it is a good practice to wash them off frequently Washing removes the dust, and since the leaves are smooth, insects are readily washed off, especially if the water is used under pressure.

The plant does much better if grown indoors the year around. During the summer, shade it from the direct sun. Repotting or shifting to a larger pot may be necessary each summer.

Acalanes Heads Ask 2, 24 'Yes'

Top Acalanes District school administrators — Superintendent N. M. Parsons and Acalanes and Las Lomas Principals Stanley Walgren and Leland Russell — joined with the Veterans of Foreign Wars; the California State Grange, the State PTA, California Farmers, Inc., the State Chamber of Commerce; Stockton American Legion; California AF of L California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club and the State Republican and Democratic Parties, in urging residents within the Acalanes area to vote "Yes" next Tuesday on school Propositions 2 and 24.

Parsons declared: "The need for additional funds for all schools within the Acalanes High School District is urgent. Rising operating costs, increased student enrollment and lack of proper school housing are serious educational problems which cannot adequately be met on operating funds voted in 1946; a problem that requires immediate available state funds, especially for elementary districts, to meet the school housing crisis."

Walgren and Russell concurred, observing few business establishments could be run today on operating funds deemed adequate six years ago.

Proposition 2 would increase the amount of State aid being given schools to meet operating costs; Proposition 24 would set aside a $185,000,000 fud to be loaned to designated needy school districts for additional school house construction.

Send Parcels to Servicemen Now

Now is the time to mail Christmas parcels to members of the Armed Forces serving outside continental United States.

The period for sending packages got under way October 15 and will remain open until November 15.

The Post Office has advised patrons that foodstuffs subject to spoilage and breakage should not be sent overseas, since military personnel are well supplied with food by the armed services.

All persons overseas receive their mail through an A.P.O., care of Postmaster, New York, N. Y.; San Francisco, Calif.; New Orleans, La., or Seattle, Wash., or Fleet Post Office at New York, N. Y., or San Francisco, Calif.

When Decorating Your Home, You Should Consider Family Hobbies

BY FRANCIS DE N. SCHROEDER
(for John Widdicomb Co.)

What are your family's likes and needs? What is the number of dinner guests, evening guests, overnight guests, that you usually have?

Does your husband like a loungy chair or a hard one? Do you like to take a nap in the living room or in the bedroom? On a chaise lounge or on the bed?

Where will you put the bedspreads when the beds are opened for the night? Where do you do your writing? Has a breakfront desk space enough? Or do you require a large writing surface? Or typewriter space

DO YOUR children romp in the living room? Or in a room furnished for rough housing?

If you or someone in the family has a hobby, or some special interest such as music, art, books or cards, make some expression of it a part of the decorative scheme.

What is to be the theme within your home?

If, for example, you like provincial simplicity, mix your periods in furnishings as much as you like, but let the note of provincial simplicity flow from room to room.

Have you a distinct feeling about any particular color? Choose a color you really like. Play it up in one room, subdue it in another. Change the color combinations from room to room, but let the key color show itself from time to time to carry out the harmony.

HOW MUCH money do you intend to spend? Fix an amount and try to stay within it. That is easier said than done, but it will help to have a plan, so that when you pay more than you expected for something you simply can't resist, you will manage to save the difference on the next item you choose.

What are the essentials you must buy? How many bers? How many seating pieces? How many dining chairs? A piano? A desk And so on.

A GOOD RULE of thumb is to allow about 65 per cent of your budget for furniture, 20 per cent for floor covering, 10 per cent for curtains and draperies, 5 per cent for lamps, pictures, etc. (Major items such as a piano should be provided for outside the budget).

Of the 65 per cent for furniture, figure 35 per cent for the all-wood pieces, 25 per cent for upholstered pieces and 5 per cent for springs and mattresses.

Of the 20 per cent for floor coverings, figure 15 per cent for living and dining areas and 5 per cent for all others.

Of the 10 per cent for draperies, figure 8 per cent for living-dining areas and 2 per cent for all others. (These percentages are average, based on a two bedroom apartment. They will vary according to the number and relative sizes of dining living and sleeping areas.

Don't depend on memory. Make a simple chart for yourself to record what you see.

MUM Open House Still On at Orchard Nursery

So widespread is the interest in chrysanthemums that people are still driving great distances to enjoy the Open House display at the Orchard Nursery in Lafayette.

The drifts of color will be maintained throughout the blooming season, with mid-season and late folwers replacing the early ones as the season advances.

'Carriers' Topic For USNR Meeting

"Carrier Operations and Characteristics" will be the topic of Commander H. Beasley, U.S.N.R. of Orinda at next Wednesday night's meeting of U. S. Naval Reserve Volunteer Composite Unit 12-25 at Acalanes High School.

The meeting will start at 7:30. In addition to describing operations aboard typical aircraft carriers, Commander Beasley will show a sound film on this subject.

Those Low Spots

Water stands in low spots and grass roots can't breath.

Add a little top soil to the depressions and smooth it out with the back of a rake.

Your hometown merchants depend on you to enable them to keep in business. So, naturally, they offer you the best buys you could get.

Close Cutting Is Good Now

This is one time of the year when a close cutting is good. By moving up the mower roller, adjust the height of cut to ¾" to 1". Follow mowing with a vigorous raking.

This will clean out any excessive accumulation of undecayed clippings. Such an accumulation, if left through a rainy winter season, is conductive to the activity of winter fungus.

No doubt about it — the most convenient and most economical shopping is at hometown stores!

Diablo Choral Party

More than 120 women attended the Diablo Valley Choral dessert-card party last Wednesday at the Walnut Creek Women's Club.

Mrs. Alice Simmons was chairman and Mrs. Alice Kauffman was in charge of decorations assisted by Mrs. Betty Wedel, Mrs. Mildred Ball and Mrs. Mildred Martin.

Decorations were in fall colors with cattails, pepper tree branches and pyracantha across the front of the stage with colorful duck decoys intermingled. In one corner was a display of corn stalks with pumpkins and squash greens clustered around. Card tables were covered with colorful wallpaper and on each were swatches of material as table prizes.

Other swatches had been made into luncheon sets and aprons as prizes. All were given through the courtesy of Mrs. Doris Jellett and prizes were made by members.

Luncheon sets were won by Mesdames John Basham and Carl Ball. Apron winners were Mesdames Frederick Clark, N. S. Fletcher, V. J. Kronenberg, Charles N. Perry, F. J. Moss and C. H. Thomas.

Alpha Epsilon Hosts Council

Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Phi Epsilon Phi Sorority was hostess to the Bay Area District Council at El Nido Rancho October 19.

Tables were decorated with lacquered dried weeds and each member was given a corsage of the same.

Chairman of the affair was Mrs. Leland Krebs, assisted by Mesdames Van Barber, Donald Ortland, Dean Lenzi, Kenneth Rambo, Richard Pena, Daniel Stucki, Rudy Blazick, Carlton Doke, with Mrs. Thomas Snow serving in an advisory capacity.

A prize, contributed by Stucki Jewelry of Walnut Creek, was won by Council President Mary Lee of Upsilon Chapter, San Francisco.

Plans were laid for the National Convention to be held at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley, November 15 and 16.

Sorority Tours Therapy Center

Members of the Bay area Alumnae Association of Sigma Kappa Sorority toured the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center in Walnut Creek Monday.

Mrs. George Inskip of Lafayette made arrangements for the tour.

Those present included: Mesdames Eugene Blan, Scott Beamer Philip Bowman, William Brennan, Roger Conant, Charles De Vaul, Roland Dygert, John Fawcett, Fred Federigho, Ralph Funk, Carrol Glenney, William Creig, Alvin Hambly, Lawrence Harper, W. E. Judson, Walter Kolasa, Boyd Lucas, Philip Meads, Edward Nickel and Gustav Noack, E. H. Padden, Thomas Phair, George Playter, H. L. Prevost, William Prucha, Ralph Schacht, Marion Scott, A. R. Smith, James Stone, Neil Taylor, Edward Towler, G. R. Vestal, B. L. Winslow, Robert Wolcott, Brown Zerley and George Swallow.

BATTERY CHECK

By checking the level of the electrolyte solution in the storage battery of your automobile you can prevent damage to the battery plates and separators, according to the California State Automobile Association.

Stanford Mothers Honor New Members At Autumn Lunch

Stanford Mothers of the East Bay held their annual autumn luncheon in honor of the mothers of entering freshmen on Tuesday at the Berkeley Women's City Club.

Local members served on committees for the affair were Mrs. Merrill Raynolds of Walnut Creek, public relations; Mrs. Hugh Haskell Orinda, decorations; Mrs. Fred Ingram, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Bernard Butler, Lafayette, hospitality committee.

New members from this area who were welcomed into the club included Mesdames Homer H. Fitzzimmons, Robert E. Gailbrath, Sigurd Groenings, Alfred W. Reid, and Edward Tilton of Orinda; Mrs. Rolland J. Brown of Lafayette; Mrs. Roderick M. Iverson of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Edgar L. Olson and Mrs. Willard Reinheimer of Danville, and Mrs. Carl F. Mills of Concord.

Dr. Robert Stewart To Speak Wednesday

Dr. Robert S. Stewart, associate professor of psychology and education at San Francisco State College, will talk on "Parents Are People, Too," Wednesday, 8 p.m. in Building 12 of the East Contra Costa Junior College campus.

He will be the first of four authorities to speak on aspects of child psychology at public meetings planned for this winter and fall.

Can Use TB Seals Now For Overseas Mailing

Since Christmas packages for overseas mailing must go out early, the Contra Costa Public Headth Association is again permitted by a National Tuberculosis Association ruling to release Christmas Seals before the opening date of the Seal Sale.

The 1952 Christmas Seal features the red Double-Barred Cross with a lighted candle against a green background. Anyone wishing to use these seals for overseas mailing may telephone or write to the office of the Contra Costa Public Health Association, 502 Ward Street, Martinez, telephone Martinez 2350. The cost is $1 per sheet.

League Of Jewish Women Plan Party

A harvest party set for the Lafayette Town Hall on November 5 at 8:30 p.m. will open the fall season of activities for the League of Jewish Women.

Guests may enjoy bridge, canasta or any other game of their choice. Refreshments will be served, and admission will be $1.

Mrs. Jack Cronin is chairman of the affair.

DON'T GAMBLE WITH AMERICA'S FUTURE

BEFORE WE GO TO THE POLLS TUESDAY LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO KEEP PRICES DOWN?
They voted against inflation controls. (The Record: 59% of House Republicans and 51% of Senate Republicans voted against extending rent, price, and credit controls in the 1952 Defense Production Act. 79% of House Republicans voted to end all price controls in 1952.)

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO STOP COMMUNIST EXPANSION?
They voted against any help to our allies in 1951. (The Record: 54% of House Republicans in 1951 voted to block any help — military, economic, or technical — to enable our allies and friends to strengthen themselves against the threat of Communism.)

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO STRENGTHEN SOUTH KOREA?
They voted against military help to Korea in 1949. (The Record: 65% of House Republicans voted against sending arms to Korea in 1949.)

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO HELP SMALL BUSINESSMEN?
They voted against loans to small businesses. (The record: 35% of 40 voting Republicans in the Senate voted on April 22, 1952, to abolish the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Since 1947 this agency has made 19,580 loans to small businessmen. Its record of repayment is 99%.

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO KEEP AMERICA'S FARMS PROSPEROUS?
They voted against a strong farm price support program. (The Record: 56% of House Republicans voted this year against continuing price supports at 90% of parity through 1955.)

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO STOP BIG BUSINESS MONOPOLY?
They voted against controlling monopolistic mergers. (The record: 59% of Senate Republicans voted against the anti-merger bill in 1950. This bill plugged up a serious loophole in anti-trust laws, prevented large corporations from making monopolistic mergers by purchasing assets rather than stock of corporations.)

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO ABOUT FLOOD CONTROL?
They voted against it. (The record: 64% of Senate Republicans voted to cut flood control funds in half in 1951.)

WHAT DID THE REPUBLICANS DO TO MAKE AMERICA STRONG AND SAFE?
They voted to cut defense. (The record: 94% of House Republicans voted to limit defense expenditures in 1953 to $46 billion, to reduce our number of new medium tanks from 3,400 to 300, to slow Air Force and Navy readiness by two years.)

DEMOCRATS!

JOHN BALDWIN TO CONGRESS!

Duty and loyalty to country are greater than loyalty to a political party

More than 18,000 Democrats voted for John Baldwin in the Primary.

The new Sixth District, composed of Contra Costa and Solano Counties, has more than 400,000 population, nearly as much as the entire States of Wyoming and Nevada combined!

JOHN F. BALDWIN

The problems of the District are many and varied. It is a complete cross-section of America. Contra Costa County alone is the fastest growing County in the fastest growing State in the Union.

The Sixth District vitally needs and must have in Congress a man who will have the respect and cooperation of his fellow Congressmen. He must be a man who can command and obtain important Committee assignments. He must be a man of integrity, of energy and of high intelligence. He must know all the problems of the District, from Richmond to Dixon, including the problems of each of the broad segments of our population:

.... Labor
.... Industry
.... Agriculture
.... Small Business
... All the People

What we need in a Congressman is a man who represents fairly, fearlessly and with sympathetic understanding, all these diverse elements in our rapidly growing population.

John Baldwin stands for all of these things. That is why we support Baldwin. We cannot support his opponent, because as loyal Americans we place country above party, and because Baldwin's opponent has been too closely identified with Left-Wingers and with Left-Wing causes. That's why we say duty and loyalty to country are greater than loyalty to a political party.

Sport Car Fans Meet at Diablo

More than 200 sport car enthusiasts from all over California gathered at Diablo State Park last Sunday for a "concours d' elegance" and picnic sponsored by the Avant Garde Motor Car Clique of California.

Following breakfast at Rick's Drive In, members went to the state park, where awards were made for the most highly-refined engine, the most immaculate exterior and the best overall car.

Some of the fastest and most expensive autos ever built participated

Propose Survey of Teachers' Salaries

A survey of salaries paid teachers in the various school districts of Contra Costa County, as a possible step toward improving conditions in order to recruit more teachers, has been proposed by the education committee of the 1952-53 Grand Jury.

Grand Jury members made the suggestion at the first combined meeting ever held by a Grond Jury education committee and the Contra Costa Board of Education.

At the recent meeting, the following factors were brought out as being involved in the teacher shortages: (1) salaries, (2) working conditions, (3) morale, or the feeling of accomplishment, and (4) availability of supervision or assistance to teachers.

Youth Concerts to Start November 18

Third season of the youth concerts given by the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra in the East Bay will get under way in the Berkeley High School Community Theater at 2 p.m. on November 18.

Mrs. Robert Bigler ,past president of the Orinda Mothers Club, and Mrs. Ronald Howard of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District are members of the P.T.A. Symphonies Committee.

Applications for the concert may be obtained at the offices of all schools in this area.

Transportation to the concerts is being arranged and will be by school buses and private car pools.

The concerts are given under the sponsorship of the Berkeley-Albany Council of Parents and eTachers, in cooperation with the Berkeley public schools.

TURN FROM PROPER LANE

Strict observance of the rules about making turns will prevent many a damaged fender and personal injury accidents, says the California State Automobile Association. The correct procedure is to turn RIGHT from the RIGHT HAND lane and LEFT from the LEFT HAND lane.

Amateurs Form County Network

Contra Costa County radio amateurs ar esetting up a complete radio communications network for the county, made possible by the graduation of 21 "ham" operators from a basic civil defense course.

The plan as outlined will tie in all the services under the civil defense program, following the directive of the Feedral Civil Defense Administration for emergency use.

Walter L. Chandler, who instructed the group of new graduates, called attention to the fact that it includes a woman, Mary Ellen Peterson, 19, of Alamo.

"Hams" from this area who received diplomas are: Alamo and Danville: Mary Ellen Peterson, WN6PIN; O. W. Peterson, W6LGW; Al Myers, W6LIL; Concord. Leon Pate, W6JUW; James O. Hilliard, W6CGS; Richard V. Wallace, W6TKU; Thomas J. Revak, W6JYZ; Lafayette, John S. Hopkins, K6AQ; Walnut Creek, Leo Leidy, W6YHG; P. M. Reibin, F. M. Reibin, Leslie E. Simmonds, Roscoe R. Stewart, Ed Williamson, Ralph Cook.

Democratic Group To Support Baldwin

Powerful and organized Democratic support gave a strong surge recently to the campaign of John F. Baldwin, Republican nominee for Sixth District congressman, with the announcement of the formation of a Contra Cosat County Democrats for Baldwin group.

Francis P. Healey of Richmond, former Contra Costa district attorney, is joined with Thomas Coakley, San Francisco attorney and Alhambra Valley farmer, and Manuel Trebino, Martinez area farmer and A. F. of L. Electrical Workers' Union member as co-chairmen of the organization.

County Continues Education for Handicapped Youth

Contra Costa's education of handicapped children still has some way to go before classes are available to all, according to County Superintendent B. O. Wilson.

Wilson said fewer than half of the county's cerebral palsied children outside of the immediate Richmond area can be accommodated in the school which Mt. Diablo Unified Districts will open in remodeled quarters at Shadlands Ranch soon.

Approximately 12 children can be enrolled. They will be selected by a committee on admissions.

Wilson said that the education committee of the Grand Jury met recently with the County Board of Education to discuss various matters, including the education of handicapped children ,on which the previous Grand Jury recommended action.

Lack of funds and the school housing shortage have retarded development of a program, particularly for the cerebral palsied, the superintendent explained.

Aladdin's Lamp To Be Presented Here

"Aladin and His Wonderful Lamp" will be the first of four plays to be presented by the East Bay Children's Theatre group at Acalanes High School.

This production will be given November 15, 2 p.m., in the high school auditorium.

Other plays scheduled for the school year are "Puss in Boots," "Mystery of Good Acre Farm" and "Tom Sawyer."

Spotlighting the Strip . . .

By KITTY COLE

Whether you like IKE or ADLAI, Go to the polls on voting day.

REMEMBER TO VOTE ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH.

LUISIANI'S is having a Halloween party on October 31st, and it will be a gala affair. You may wear your usual garb, or if you feel gay, come in costume. This will be a grand place to bring your friends for fun and frolic. Dinner dancing from 9 . . . last Monday was Shell Oil Company night at LUISIANI'S. Ditto, next Monday. Since there are over 700 reservations, party was divided into two events . . . Success story in 6 F's: FABULOUS FAUST'S — FAMOUS FOR FINE FOOD . . . "There's going to be a great day" could be the theme song of the EL NIDO RANCHO, come next Sunday, November 2nd. First of all, there's the breakfast-broadcast from 12 to 1, with an array of stars from the entertainment field, and the special guest this week, will be BEATRICE KAY, that clever interpreter of the songs of yesterday. And the "big news" is that you can enjoy an afternoon of dancing to the music of JIMMY RODGER'S ORCHESTRA, immediately following the broadcast. Every Sunday, from 1 to 3, this band, currently appearing nightly at the COLONY CLUB in Pittsburg, will play for dancing. Best of all, half of the proceeds from the November 2nd and 9th breakfast, broadcast and dance will be given to the CONTRA COSTA CEREBRAL PALSY SOCIETY. There are 58 children needing assistance in this area, but only 12 can be helped because of the Society's limited funds. So come to EL NIDO RANCHO Sunday and lend your support to this very worthy cause . . . Last Sunday's football tour sponsored by DANNY VAN ALLEN was a great success. This boy has an eye for publicity, and spends a great deal of time dreaming up new angles to further the popularity of his spot. He has added an eyeful to his bandstand, vocalist JOYCE TIERNEY, and is hoping to get his original, big band together again, to play for dancing . . . Note to DON THOMPSON of CAPE COD HOUSE: I know a fellow who can paint a beautiful sea-scape mural on your dining-room wall. Initials, GENE WHITING . . . The GENTLEMEN CHEFS de CUISINE, of which MILT NELSON is an active member, will have their Thanksgiving dance at the ORINDA WILLOWS. Besides a delicious dinner and dancing, each lady will receive as a gift, a jewelry box with a $30 set of costume jewelry inside.

Services Held for Rose Cummings, Supervisor's Wife

uneral services for Mrs. Rose White Cummings, 58, wife of chairman H. L. Cummings of the County Board of Supervisors, were held Monday at St. Rose's Catholic Church in Crockett. Interment was at St. Dominic's cemetery in Benicia.

She died Friday at her home at 475 Edwards Street in Crockett. She had been in ill health since last July.

Mrs. Cummings is survived by her husband; her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth White of Benicia; and a daughter, Mrs. Rita McGann of Miami, Florida. She is also survived by Mrs. Rita Mini and Robert Mini of Benicia and Alvin Cummings of Santa Cruz.

Mrs. Cummings, a naitve of eBnicia, was active in St. Rose's Catholic Church, Carquinez Women's Club, and the Legion Auxiliary.

Propositions Confusing? Here in Brief Are What They Mean, Pros and Cons

Following is the list of 24 state propositions on the ballot in next Tuesday's election, with a brief description of each proposition and a digest of the principal arguments offered by proponents and opponents.

This summary has been prepared by the League of Women Voters. Arguments listed have been culled from a wide variety of interested parties and are offered by the league as presented by proponents and opponents. The arguments do not represent league opinion or judgment.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization. This condensed statement was prepared by an editorial committee representing leagues in Berkeley, Mill Valley, Oakland, Palo Alto, Piedmont, Richmond, San Anselmo, San Francisco, San Mateo and Sausalito.

1 — VETERANS' FARM AND HOME BONDS

Authorizes additional $150,000,000 in bonds for continuation of California veterans' farm and home loan program.

FOR — Bonds self-liquidating; no tax expense. Present bond proceeds exhausted.

AGAINST — Some loans could be privately financed.

2 — PUBLIC SCHOOL FUNDS

Increases state's annual contribution for support of public schools, including technical schools, from $120 to $180 for each pupil; retains present principle for equalizing aid to poorer districts, but with minimum guarantee of $120 instead of $90 per student to all districts.

FOR — Inflation has lowered purchasing power of school district dollars; property owners not able to assume more local tax. State better able to meet increased costs.

AGAINST — Any tax increase will affect taxpayers. California teachers' median salary 40 per cent higher than median for country. Unsound public polic yto increase constitutional fixed charges.

3 — WELFARE EXEMPTION OF NON-PROFIT SCHOOL PROPERTY

Includes property of non-profit schools of less than collegiate grade in present "welfare" tax exemption granted to non-profit organizations and institutions.

FOR — Non-profit schools contribute to general welfare by saving $40,000,000 annually in education costs, plus up to $350,000,000 capital outlay. Probable loss in revenue not over $700,000 a year. Colleges of similar status now exempt. No other state taxes such schools.

AGAINST — Tax exemption could lose millions in revenue and will not decrease cost of government. No 100-acre limitation as in case of college exemption. Taxpayers have no voice in operation of private schools; cost should be borne by users without subsidy of tax exemption.

4 — PAYMENTS TO NEEDY BLIND

Prohibits counties from considering blind aid as family income when determining eligibility of other members of family for general relief.

FOR — Blind aid intended for special needs of blind recipient and not for family.

AGAINST — Relief should be based only on total family need.

5 — SUBVERSIVE GROUPS AND PERSONS

Provides no person or organization which advocates overthrow of government by unlawful means shall hold public office or employment, or receive tax exemption.

FOR — Provides means for dismissal of disloyal persons. No reason to grant tax exemptions to disloyal organizations or individuals. Affidavits of loyalty could accompany applications for tax exemptions.

AGAINST — cost of investigation would exceed protection. Confidential nature of loyalty investigation permits unfounded charges, without accuser having to face accused. Permits legislative interferences with hiring and firing of University of California faculty.

6 — OATHS OF OFFICE

Requires new oath of all public employees, including statement that such employee will defend, as well as support State and U.S. Constitutions, that he does not now advocate nor is he a member of an organization advocating overthrow of government by unlawful means; that he has not done so during preceding five years, nor will during term of office.

FOR — Provides means of prosecuting disloyal persons for perjury before overt act. Constitution does not guarantee right of public employment; oath does not curtail rights of private persons.

AGAINST — Present oath and existing laws provide adequate safeguards. Terms and consequences of proposed oath not clear. Threatens democratic processes by creating atmosphere of fear and distrust.

7 — ELECTIONS: BALLOT DESIGNATIONS OF PARTY AFFILIATION

Requires that political party affiliation of candidates be shown on primary election balolts.

FOR — Clarifies party affiliations of candidates who run on ticket of more than one party.

AGAINST — Would not abolish cross-filing. (See Proposition 13.)

8 — TAXATION: CHURCH BUILDINGS UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Extends present tax exemption for church buildings and lands in actual use to buildings under construction.

FOR — Fair to exempt buildings under construction if to be exempted when completed.

AGAINST — Exemptions should be based on actual rather than intended use. Latter cannot always be established.

9 — TAXATION: COLLEGE BUILDINGS UNDER CONSTRCTION

Extends exemption on non-profit college buildings in actual use to such buildings under construction.

Arguments for and against same as Proposition 8.

10 — PUBLIC FUNDS. CERTAIN EXPENDITURES PROHIBITED

Prohibits appropriation of public money to private organizations which attempt to influence legislation; prohibition to be retroactive if application is not illegal.

FOR — Poor policy to turn over public funds to private organizations which spend money to influence legislation. The $3,000,000 appropriated annually by counties to private organizations for advertising might better be used for other purposes.

AGAINST — Broad wording makes implications of measure difficult to determine; could prevent local governments from doing business with any private business firm having a legislative program. Public money now spent only for purposes recognized by Legislature as having public value.

11 — PAYMENTS TO AGED PERSONS

Places administration of Old-Age Security under State Department of Social Welfare, ending state supervised county administration and counties' share of costs. Liberalizes real and personal property limitations. Repeals relatives' responsibility. Grants cost-of-living increases, funeral and health payment.

FOR — Centralized state administration is economical and efficient. County tax share shifted to broader state tax base.

AGAINST — Local administration better abl eto fill local needs. Change would result in duplication, by state, of county administration of other public assistance programs.

12 — MILITARY SERVICE BY PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

Permits state officers to receive pay for 30 days active duty a year in U. S. military reserve without loss of state salary.

FOR — Corrects technical omission in present law.

AGAINST — No known opposition.

13 — ELECTIONS: PROHIBITING CROSS-FILING

Requires candidates for partisan office to seek only nomination of own party at primary election.

FOR — Strengthens two-party system by requiring candidate to run on his own party platform, giving voter basis for choosing nominee of his party. Present system denies independent voter voice in final election, if candidate is elected in the primary, and destroys party responsibility.

Smash both Schemes -- NO on 10 & 11

AGAINST — Cross-filing prevents political machines and boss-rule. Lets voter choose candidate he prefers regardless of party. Strict party tests impossible on state level.

14 — REPEALING CONSTITUTIONAL RESTRICTIONS ON CHINESE

Repeals restrictions on residence, employment on public works, and immigration of Chinese.

FOR — Employment discrimination because of race contrary to present public policy. Most remaining provisions of article already held unconstitutional.

AGAINST — No known opposition.

15 — TAXATION. INSURANCE COMPANIES AND BANKS

Includes State Compensation Insurance Fund in definition of "insurer." Subjects all insurance companies and banks to payment of motor vehicle fees.

FOR — Requires state fund to pay property taxes as do other insurers. Insurance companies and banks should pay motor vehicle taxes as do other business firms and individuals.

AGAINST — No known opposition.

16 — BOROUGH FORM OF CITY GOVERNMENT

Permits chartered cities, or cities and counties to establish borough form of government in any part, as well as in whole territory.

FOR — Brings large city citizens closer to government; purley local matters would be dealt with and paid for within area affected.

AGAINST — No known opposition.

17 — CHIROPRACTORS

Amends chiropractic initiative act with reference to licensing, composition of board, fees and fines.

FOR — Requirement of 16 hours of post-graduate study each year and new definition of unprofessional conduct insures higher professional standards. Enlarging board membership with increased per diem increases efficiency at no cost to taxpayer.

AGAINST — Increases cost to chiropractors and may deprive those in service of right to renew license. Requirement for post-graduate work unnecessary; experience in practice is guarantee of professional standards.

18 — COMMUNITY REDEVELOPMENT PROJECTS

Provides that tax revenues from improvements in redeveloped areas shall be used to reimburse city for expenses incurred in buying and clearing land.

FOR — Makes redevelopment projects self-liquidating; encourages cities to undertake such projects. Self-sustaining redevelopment is socially and economically beneficial. Measure is permissive only.

AGAINST — Earmarking of tax proceeds for any specific purpose is unsound policy; raising revenue and approving expenditures is problem of legislative body. Gives priority to repayment of city costs over previously issued local government bonds.

19 — GRAND JURIES

Provides that not less than three nor more than nine of 19 members of Grand Jury may be held over for second successive year. Foreman must be elected from new members.

FOR — Gives county experienced jurors, and insures continuity of investigations, while keeping holdover jurors to a minority.

AGAINST — Tends to create professional jurors and carryover of previous judgments or prejudices.

20 — STATE FUNDS: HOSPITAL CONSTRUCTION

Permits appropriation of state funds for construction of private nonprofit hospitals.

FOR — If state, as well as federal, funds were available, more hospitals could be built. Meeting of hospital needs by partial subsidy is less costly to taxpayers than hospitals financed entirely by public funds.

AGAINST — Violates public policy prohibiting gifts of public moneys to private institutions. Paves the way for state funds to be used for operation and maintenance of private hospitals.

21 — SUPERIOR JUDGES, VACANCIES

Provides that election must be held for Superior Court judge in year when term expires, even if vacancy occurs in that year. Present law does not require appointee in that year to run until two years later.

FOR — Gves electorate earlier opportunity to retain or reject appointed judge; establishes closer local control over judiciary.

AGAINST — Language of proposed amendment gives rise to conflicting interpretations of probable result.

22 — PROPERTY TAX STATEMENTS

Provides that real and personal property tax statements may be made by written declaration, under penalty of jerjury.

FOR — Simplifies procedure for taxpayer and assessor.

AGAINST — Puts burden of assessing on taxpayer, with no guarantee of uniform, equitable assessments.

23 — DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY FOR ASSESSMENT

Allows large land holdings to be assessed as single parcel instead of in units of 640 acres.

FOR — Simplifies work of assessors and tax collectors, and saves time and money.

AGAINST — Might give Legislature greater power to change basis for fixing value of land for assessment purposes.

24 — SCHOOL BONDS

Authorizes $185,000,000 in bonds for school construction and reconstruction.

FOR — Funds voted in 1949 inadequate for present minimum needs. Safeguards in enabling legislation will insure economical use of funds by local districts.

AGAINST — Funds raised by local districts usually more economically spent. Additional local funds could be raised by increasing low assessment levels.

IN ADDITION to the state propositions, there is a county proposition on the ballot — County Proposition A.

This brief description of it is not from the League of Women Voters. It is based on available information.

PROPOSITION A is for a $1,350,000 bond issue for construction of a county office building in Richmond. A two-thirds vote is required for passage.

In announcing endorsement by the executive committee of his organization, President Gerald S. Deardorff of the Contra Costa Taxpayers' Association pointed out that the county now pays $40,000 annually to the City of Richmond and private persons for office space rental and stated that the "ultimate savings to the taxpayers of the county will soon be realized if the population continues to increase as predicted by most authorities."

County Administrator D. M. Teeter says the measure, if approved, will save county taxpayers a quarter of a million dollars in the next 20 years.

Support for 'A'

Gerald S. Deardorff, president of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, announced that the association executive committee has unanimously endorsed County Proposition A concerning a $1,350,000 bond issue for a county building in Richmond, but has requested the Board of Supervisors that the association be given the opportunity to review construction plans of the contemplated county building. This, it was explained, was in order to assure the taxpayers that the building would be constructed in the most economical fashion consistent with efficient use of the building.

Board Against No. 3

A warning that passage of Proposition No. 3 "will undoubtedly be followed by greater demands in the future" is issued by Alfred J. Lundberg, co-chairman of the California Taxpayers Alliance.

"The special interests which are backing the present proposition are using a so-called 'justice in education' argument to escape payment of taxes for parochial schools in this campaign," said Lundberg, former president of the California State Chamber of Commerce. "But this is only a foot in the door measure. Their future plans call for using the same false argument to ask the state to support their parochial schools wholly, just as we do our great, free public school system."

Back No. 24

"Overcrowded, makeshift classrooms and half-day sessions are forcing a lamentable 'watering-down' of educational opportunity at a time when we need to develop to the utmost those precious human resources which have made America great."

This appraisal is in a joint statement by Neil Petree, president of the California State Chamber of Commerce, and C. J. (Neil) Haggerty, secretary-treasurer of the California State Federation of Labor, co-chairmen of the Committee to Relieve Overcrowded Classrooms, in urging approval of Proposition 24, the school construction measure.

Ask 'Yes' for 3

According to Adrien J. Falk, vice-chairman of the State Committee of Californians for Justice in Education, labor leaders and labor organiations have launched a home-stretch drive to gain a Yes-vote victory for Proposition 3 at the polls Tuesday.

Falk is spearheading the campaign in Northern California to sustain, through referendum, the action of the State Legislature in granting tax equality to non-profit private grammar and high schools on the same basis as it has been granted non-profit colleges since 1914. In a joint statements, C. J. Haggerty, secretary-treasurer of the California State Federation of Labor, and John Despol, secretary, California CIO Council—both serving as vice-chairmen for Californians for Justice in Education — backed Proposition 3.

Against No. 10

The Contra Costa Board of Supervisors has issued a statement urging citizens to vote "No" on Proposition No. 10 on next Tuesday's ballot. Acting unanimously, board members declared that the proposed legislation is inimical to the interests of all citizens and would result in the destruction of very necessary governmental functions.

No. 10 would bar the use of public funds for employment of legislative representatives or for performance of other necessary services, the board stated.

They Agree on No. 2

A 'Yes' vote on Proposition 2 is urged by two women leaders, one a Republican and one a Democrat.

Mrs. Eliabeth Snyder, vice-chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and Mhs. Mildred Younger, vice-chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, set aside their partisan differences in agreeing on this issue, to increase state support of the public schools.

Urge 'No' on No. 2

Property taxes for all public school purposes up 163 per cent, state school support up 135 per cent, and attendance up perhaps a bit more than 38 per cent — that's the record for school support in Contra Costa county since 1946, when the last constitutional increase in state school support was approved by the people, according to the California Taxpayers' Association.

"These facts show little need for the 50 per cent increase in state school support proposed in Proposition No. 2," the association said.

POOR DRIVING VISIBILITY

One out of five fatal traffic accidents occurs because of poor driving visibility, reports Robert W. Jackson, director of public relations and public safety for the National Automobile Club. Drive with special care and always tr yto keep your windshield clean.

NDGW Heads Favor 2

The grand officers of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, representing 20,000 women, have endorsed Proposition 2, their grand president, Mrs. Elmarie H. Dyke announced.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Passage of Proposition 2 and 24 is of particular importance to Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek.

Ask yourself, if you were a teacher, how much education could you generate facing swollen classes enrollments in crowded classrooms, without facilities to implement your teaching, operating on double (and in some instances triple) sessions.

Both the Republican and Democratic Parties have come out with many other state and local groups in support of Proposition 2 and 24. The SUNS are to be congratulated for their support of these two school measures and their obvious interest in community welfare — the welfare of our youngsters in particular.

Henry Weiss
Orinda

Dear Editor:

My children have only one lifetime and generaly one opportunity in that life time to prepare themselves for the future with a good education.

I don't think anyone wants to tell his youngster, "You deserve an education, BUT I don't think I should spent that much in you."

It would seem that the persons opposing passage of Proposition 2 and 24 are doing just that. If we want our youngsters capable of maintaining themselves and our political system tomorrow, we have to afford them an education today.

I'm voting Yes on 2 and 24. I hope enough of us do likewise.

Webster D. Wilson
Walnut Creek

Dear Editor:

I am taking this opportunity to thank you for helping us, the "Women for Weimar" group, of which I am a member, with all the news items you have put in your paper for us.
